Growing in Authority, Relinquishing Control Celia Allison Hahn, 1994-06-01 Contents include I What is authority and Where do you get it II Patterns of Growth in Authority III Practical Dilemmas in the Exercise of Authority IV Authority in Different Voices V The Paradoxical Authority of Laity and Clergy VI Growing in Authority Being the Church Sex, Feminism and Lesbian Desire in Women's Magazines Kate Farhall, 2020-09-14 This book examines evolving pop culture representations of sex and relationships from the 1970s onwards to demonstrate parallels between the strength of the feminist movement and positive portrayals of women's sexuality In charting changes in the sex and relationship content of women's magazines over time this analysis reveals that despite surface level changes in sexual and relationship content the underlying paradigm of hetero monogamy remains unchanged Despite a seemingly more diverse empowered and liberated sexuality for women in contemporary magazines in reality such feminist rhetoric masks an enduring model of sexuality which rests on women's sexual and emotional maintenance of male partners and their own self objectification and self surveillance Where substantive changes can be identified they rise and fall in tandem with feminism By demonstrating this empirical relationship between cultural products and feminist organising the book validates an assumption that has rarely been tested that a feminist social milieu improves cultural narratives about sexuality for women Sex Feminism and Lesbian Desire builds on ground breaking feminist texts such as Susan Faludi's Backlash to present an empirically focused comprehensive study interrogating changes in content over the lifetime of women's magazines By charting the representation of sex and relationships in two women's magazines Cosmopolitan and Cleo since the 1970s through an analysis of over 6 500 magazine pages and 1 500 articles this timely work interrogates and ultimately complicates the apparent linear progression of feminism This book is suitable for researchers and students in women's and gender studies queer studies LGBT studies media studies cultural studies and sociology The Fellowship of Song Ginette Dunn, 2015-12-22 Originally published in 1980 Song is perhaps the strongest form of traditional culture Its vigour and energy represent the power of the community from which it springs This book focuses on traditional singing in two small English villages It studies in detail an activity which goes to the core of the communal life in any village and demonstrates how song becomes the lifeblood of the traditions of rural life In many ways traditional singing is highly subversive because its practice is an affirmation of community and a denial of the fragmentation of modern society The songs sung those remembered the singers now dead whose lives are recalled each time an old favourite is performed all connect the present with the past The primary aesthetic concern within these singing traditions is that a man should sing whatever the objective quality of his performance and a song should tell a good story The individual singer assumes a special role in performance since he becomes spokesman for a group and gives voice not only to personal but also to social concerns dynamics and emotions The Boston Medical and Surgical Journal ,1903 The art journal London ,1872 Art-Union ,1872 Our World ,1922 Our World Herbert Sherman
