Chapter 1 Cold War Conflicts Paper:

Post-Cold War Conflict Deterrence Naval Studies Board, Commission on Physical Sciences, Mathematics, and Applications, Division on Engineering and Physical Sciences, National Research Council, 1997-04-16 Deterrence as a strategic concept evolved during the Cold War During that period deterrence strategy was aimed mainly at preventing aggression against the United States and its close allies by the hostile Communist power centers the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics USSR and its allies Communist China and North Korea In particular the strategy was devised to prevent aggression involving nuclear attack by the USSR or China Since the end of the Cold War the risk of war among the major powers has subsided to the lowest point in modern history Still the changing nature of the threats to American and allied security interests has stimulated a considerable broadening of the deterrence concept Post Cold War Conflict Deterrence examines the meaning of deterrence in this new environment and identifies key elements of a post Cold War deterrence strategy and the critical issues in devising such a strategy It further examines the significance of these findings for the U S Navy and Marine Corps Quantitative and qualitative measures to support judgments about the potential success or failure of deterrence are identified Such measures will bear on the suitability of the naval forces to meet the deterrence objectives The capabilities of U S naval forces that especially bear on the deterrence objectives also are examined Finally the book examines the utility of models games and simulations as decision aids in improving the naval forces understanding of situations in which deterrence must be used and in improving the potential success of deterrence actions Defense White Paper, 1993 The Politics of Coercion Ellwood P. Hinman, 2002 Warfare and the Third World R. Harkavy, S. Neuman, 2016-04-30 This book is designed to help the reader better understand the conduct of war by focusing on the how not the why of warfare It examines a number of crucial dimensions of contemporary armed conflict such as the strategies operations tactics doctrines and weapons of conventional and low intensity war military geography the cultural underpinnings of strategies and tactics arms resupply security assistance and foreign intervention Privatising the Military Use of Force Frank Heemann, 2009-03-20 Master s Thesis from the year 2006 in the subject Law Comparative Legal Systems Comparative Law grade 80 University of Cape Town Universit t Kapstadt 170 entries in the bibliography language English abstract This paper will explore responsibilities that might arise under international law from the privatisation of the military use of force The aim of the paper is threefold first it explores which responsibilities states and international organizations incur under international law if they use the services of Private Military Companies PMCs ie if they privatise the use of military force Second the paper will use this survey of responsibilities to address the question whether there are at present substantial gaps in international law that need to be filled in order to deal adequately with the outsourcing of military force Third the paper will then suggest how to deal with such gaps The paper will be structured as follows Part II introduces the private military industry The focus here will be on a categorization of the industry and a description of its impact on the common understanding of warfare which assumes a state monopoly on the use of force An understanding of the different categories within the industry and the industry's impact on warfare is essential for addressing the legal question of whether PMCs are sufficiently covered by the existing international laws Part III deals with the responsibility of states arising from privatising the use of force this part will first provide a brief categorization of states that might incur responsibility and then introduce as a point of departure and mental guideline the accepted rule of state responsibility whereby a state incurs responsibility for the commission of international wrongful acts For the evaluation of a state responsibilities part III will then proceed to introduce states international obligations that are most likely to be violated in connection with the privatisation o

Arms, War, and Terrorism in the Global Economy Today Wolfram Elsner, 2007 After the end of the Cold War the world has experienced a more mono polar power structure In contrast to promises of a peaceful one world this seems not to have provided more international justice and security nor reduced international conflict Defense related issues long given minor attention in economics have surfaced rather as a central mechanism in the current stage of globalization Increase in military expenditures the multiplication of wars new generations of sophisticated weapons and increased interest for defense stocks at the financial markets indicate that a new type of relation between defense and economy has set in The papers presented here investigate on what economics has to say on conflict war and terrorism today a selection of sophisticated economic analyses of the theoretical and applied industrial macroeconomic fiscal policy financial market regional and alternative policies dimensions Here modern economics has a considerable and critical contribution to make

Cold Warfare Patrick J. Pacalo, 2004 Cold Warfare a Compact History achieved a five star rating by Wings of Gold the prestigious U S Naval Aviation magazine The reviewer author editor Captain R M Rausa called it an excellent perspective This is a unique book about the Cold War It shows the US used covert action in the war for independence The Soviets used covert action and terror In 1901 Lenin said he would do this once in power and did so after the revolution of 1917 President Woodrow Wilson then sent a world wide telegram on the Soviet genocide to US diplomats Ideology and covert action are the essence of Cold Warfare and it is covered in this book from before 1917 thru to 1991 Late Cold War history including NSC staffer Lt Col Oliver North and the Iran Contra scandal are covered The book shows how Osama Bin Laden gained indirect support from the US in the battle for Afghanistan in the 80s Sources include declassified CIA and OSS papers presidential papers the US National Archives and the private National Security Archive An interview with Daniel Ellsberg was also used The author served in the reserve 464th Chemical Brigade from 1990 to 1992 as an intelligence officer In 1983 he interned in the Strategic Studies Institute SSI of the US Army War College
