People of Today , 2006 Who's Who of American Women 2004-2005 Inc. Marquis Who's Who, Who's Who Marquis, 2004-06 A biographical dictionary of notable living women in the United States of America The Illustrated London News , 1863 New York Magazine , 1997-12-08 New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country With award winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion the magazine s consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea President Kennedy Fights the Cold War Charles River Editors, 2014-02-14 Includes pictures Includes quotes from participants including declassified CIA files Includes footnotes and a bibliography for further reading Within just a month of becoming President the issue of communist Cuba became central to John F Kennedy and his administration On February 3rd 1961 President Kennedy called for a plan to support Cuban refugees in the U S and a month later he created the Peace Corps a program that trained young American volunteers to help with economic and community development in poor countries Both programs were integral pieces of the Cold War and were attempts to align disadvantaged groups abroad with the United State and the West against the Soviet Union and its Communist satellites Meanwhile covert operations were laying the groundwork for overthrowing Cuban leader Fidel Castro and he knew it Castro railed against CIA involvement among Cubans trying to overthrow him and his still young revolution Matters came to a head that April when the Kennedy Administration moved beyond soft measures to direct action From April 17 20 1 400 CIA trained Cuban exiles landed on the beaches of Western Cuba in an attempt to overthrow Castro This plan known as the Bay of Pigs had been originally drafted by the Eisenhower Administration The exiles landed in Cuba and were expected to be greeted by anti

Castro forces within the country after which the U S would provide air reinforcement to the rebels and the Castro regime would slowly be overthrown Soviet leader Nikita Khrushchev's belief that he could push the inexperienced American leader around grew in the wake of the Bay of Pigs fiasco and the inconclusive Vienna summit in June 1961 that left Kennedy complaining to his brother Bobby that Khrushchev was like dealing with Dad All give and no take Motivated by the events of the previous year 1962 saw Khrushchev made his most decisive decision Still questioning Kennedy's resolve and attempting to placate the concerns of Cuban leader Fidel Castro following the failed Bay of Pigs invasion Khrushchev attempted to place medium range nuclear missiles in Cuba just 90 miles off the coast of the United States Though Castro warned him that the act would seem like an act of aggression to the Americans Khrushchev insisted on moving the missiles in quietly under the cover of darkness These missiles could serve not only as a deterrent against any invasion of Cuba but also as the ultimate first strike capability in the event of a nuclear war However in October 1962 American spy planes discovered the Soviets were building nuclear missile sites in Cuba and intelligence officials informed Kennedy of this on October 16th It went without saying that nuclear missile sites located just miles off the coast of the American mainland posed a grave threat to the country especially because missiles launched from Cuba would reach their targets in mere minutes That would throw off important military balances in nuclear arms and locations that had previously ensured the Cold War stayed cold Almost all senior American political figures agreed that the sites were offensive and needed to be removed but how Ultimately some of the biggest arguments during the crisis took place among members of the Kennedy administration and the military Members of the U S Air Force wanted to take out the sites with bombing missions and launch a full scale invasion of Cuba but Kennedy and his brother feared that military action could ignite a full scale escalation leading to nuclear war Though he had previously taken aggressive stances on Cuba Bobby was one of the voices who opposed outright war and helped craft the eventual plan a blockade of Cuba That was the decision President Kennedy ultimately reached as well but it remained to be seen whether Khrushchev would test Kennedy's resolve yet again

The Cuban Missile Crisis: The Cold War Goes Hot
Jim Whiting, 2020-02-04 The United States and the Soviet Union were two of the nations that defeated Nazi Germany in World War II Yet their systems of government were completely different These differences soon developed into the Cold War Both sides became bitter enemies But there was no actual fighting That situation nearly changed in 1961 The Soviets secretly installed missiles with nuclear warheads in Cuba These missiles could reach many cities in the United States When President John F Kennedy learned about these weapons he confronted Soviet premier Nikita Khrushchev The world teetered on the brink of a nuclear war This is the story of that chilling event
