Postwar economic, demographic, and technological changes had a far-reaching impact on American society, politics, and the environment.	Truman and the Cold War, 1945-1952... WWII made the U.S. go from an isolationist country to a major leader in world affairs along with possessing an incredibly strong military. The end of the war would result in many American soldiers returning to a normal life with a good and fixed economy. Despite this in the presidency under Truman, a rising tension between the U.S. and the Soviet Union would occur known as the Cold War.	Explain how living through the Great Depression and the rationing of WWII war effort impacted the state of the economy when soldiers returned home in 1945.
