A Christmas Memory Truman Capote, 1996-11-12 Together in one festive keepsake volume here are the three holiday stories that Truman Capote regarded as among his greatest works of short fiction A Christmas Memory and The Thanksgiving Visitor were inspired by Capote's early years with a family of distant relatives in rural Alabama These two childhood tales pay loving tribute to an eccentric old maid cousin Miss Sook Faulk who became Capote's best friend In A Christmas Memory Miss Sook Buddy the narrator and their dog Queenie celebrate the yuletide in a hilariously tipsy state In the poignant reminiscence One Christmas six year old Buddy journeys to New Orleans for a reunion with his estranged father that shatters many illusions And in The Thanksgiving Visitor Miss Sook invites an unexpected guest to the holiday meal the school bully Odd Henderson whom Buddy calls the meanest human creature in my experience Distinguished by Capote's delicate interplay of childhood sensibility and recollective vision these three classics are gems that celebrate the unique bonds of friends and family

A Christmas Memory Truman Capote, 2020-10-29 Tender and bittersweet these stories by Truman Capote the author of Breakfast at Tiffany's are a captivating tribute to the Christmas season We set about choosing a tree It should be as tall as a boy So a boy can't steal the star Selected from across Truman Capote's writing life these Christmas stories range from nostalgic semi autobiographical portraits of childhood to more unsettling tales of darkness beneath the festive glitter In the Deep South of Capote's youth a young boy Buddy and his beloved maiden aunt Sook forage for pecans and whiskey to bake into fruitcakes make kites too broke to buy gifts and rise before dawn to prepare feasts for a ragged assembly of guests while in other stories a lonely woman has a troubling encounter in wintry New York and an unlikely festive miracle of sorts occurs at a local drugstore Brimming with feeling these sparkling tales convey both the wonder and the chill of Christmas time cakes to send to people who've struck their fancy such as the missionary to Borneo and President Roosevelt They gather windfall pecans for the cakes they go to the General Store to buy the ingredients and they make a terrifying trip to the local bootlegger's to buy the necessary whiskey After the cakes are baked wrapped and mailed the Woman innocently shares the remaining whiskey with the little boy as they celebrate with increasingly inebriated tap dancing This leads to a shattering confrontation when the Aunts with whom they live swoop in leveling against the Woman charges of scandal sin ruination craziness This last hurts deeply and the little boy consoles her after they are alone They plan Christmas gifts for each other kites and they celebrate the ritual of Christmas morning and fly their kites in the meadow As the kites rise in the distance and eventually merge into one we sense anew their special love for one another as we feel the poignancy of this their last Christmas together Page iii      American Literature on Stage and Screen Thomas S.
