Civil Education Textbook For Ss:

Civic Education for SS 1-3 Nigeria. Federal Ministry of Education, 2009 Making Citizens Beth C. Rubin, 2012 Making Citizens illustrates how social studies can recapture its civic purpose through an approach that incorporates meaningful civic learning into middle and high school classrooms Local Civics with National Purpose J. Spencer Clark, 2021-02-03 This book examines the development of civic education in the United States through the lives of two teachers at Shortridge High School SHS in Indianapolis around 1900 After situating civic education at the turn of the century the book describes the career of Laura Donnan her influences teaching extracurriculars and civic life through the lens of her unique epistemology shaped by negotiating the gendered ideologies of her era Then the book re examines Arthur W Dunn s career focusing on his ten years at SHS and the influence of Donnan on his popular community civics curriculum and subsequently the 1916 report The Social Studies in Secondary Education Previous scholars have overlooked Dunn s time at SHS viewing it simply as a stepping stone for the progressive educator s career This book argues that Dunn s time at SHS was pivotal to his career due to influential colleagues primarily Donnan To conclude Clark discusses the implications of Donnan s epistemology in shaping civic education in the United States Regulating Human Rights, Social Security, and Socio-Economic Structures in a Global Perspective Alaverdov, Emilia, Bari, Muhammad Waseem, 2022-06-24 The social security of a person in the modern world can only be ensured by a purposeful policy and actions of the state and society aimed at achieving it This requires favorable socio economic conditions and creating an effective personal security system protecting property and citizens Human social security can be threatened by phenomena and processes that lead to drastic changes in the life of society and dangerous deformations that entail severe social consequences for the individual social groups and institutions Regulating Human Rights Social Security and Socio Economic Structures in a Global Perspective discusses the global regulation of human rights social security and socio economic structures in an era of acute challenges and crises It presents comprehensive research on political structures and the conflicts within causing challenges to individual identity and insecurity Covering topics such as legal socio studies digital authoritarianism and regional security this premier reference source is an essential resource for government officials politicians geopolitical experts economists non profit organizations human rights advocates libraries students researchers and academicians School, Society, and State Tracy L. Steffes, 2017-10-05 Democracy has to be born anew every generation and education is its midwife wrote John Dewey in his classic work The School and Society In School Society and State Tracy Steffes places that idea at the center of her exploration of the connections between public school reform in the early twentieth century and American political development from 1890 to 1940 American public schooling Steffes shows was not merely another reform project of the Progressive Era but a central one She addresses why Americans invested in public education and explains how an array of reformers subtly transformed schooling into a tool of social governance to address the consequences of industrialization and urbanization By extending the reach of schools broadening their mandate and expanding their authority over the well being of children the state assumed a defining role in the education and in the lives of American families In School Society and State Steffes returns the state to the study of the history of education and brings the schools back into our discussion of state power during a pivotal moment in American political development History of a Civic Education Project
