Teaching and Using Document-Based Questions for Middle School Edward P. O'Connor, 2003-11-14 This guide focuses on using Document Based Questions DBQs to challenge students to interpret primary sources such as letters diaries speeches and other historical records Challenge your students to interpret primary sources from American History such as letters diaries speeches and other historical records Students learn to analyze a wide variety of visual and graphic stimuli such as paintings photographs charts and graphs using Document Based Questions Containing sixteen different themes selected from major units that are covered in American History DBQs help to utilize many of the skills stressed by social studies teachers and are an excellent tool for assessing student progress The activities are geared primarily toward middle school students grades 6 8 but can be adapted easily for use by secondary students

Social Studies for Secondary Schools Alan J. Singer, 2014-10-08 Now in its 4th edition this popular text for secondary social studies methods courses integrates discussions of educational goals and the nature of history and social studies with ideas for organizing social studies curricula units lessons projects and activities A major theme throughout is that what teachers choose to teach and the way they teach reflect their broader understanding of society history and the purpose of social studies education Advocating an inquiry and activity based view of social studies teaching that respects the points of view of students and teachers and based in practice and experience it offers systematic support and open honest advice for new teachers Each chapter addresses a broad question about social studies education sub chapters begin with narrower questions that direct attention to specific educational issues Lesson ideas and materials in the book and online are especially designed to help new teachers to address common core learning standards to work in inclusive settings and to promote literacy and the use of technology in social studies classrooms Chapters include highlighted Learning Activities Teaching Activities and Classroom Activities designed to provoke discussion and illustrate different approaches to teaching social studies and conclude with recommendations for further reading and links to on line essays about related social studies topics Activities are followed by four categories Think it over Add your voice to the discussion Try it yourself and It s your classroom All of these are supported with online teaching material Designed for undergraduate and graduate pre service social studies methods courses this text is also useful for in service training programs as a reference for new social studies teachers and as a resource for experienced social studies educators who are engaged in rethinking their teaching practice New in the Fourth Edition Provides a number of new lesson ideas paired with online lesson plans and activity sheets in every chapter Takes a new focus on data driven standards based instruction especially in relation to the common core curriculum Addresses the interactive nature of learning in updated technology sections Reflects current trends in history education Includes more of what the author has learned from working teachers Offers a wealth of additional on line material linked to the text

And Action! Kathy Swan, Mark Hofer, 2013-11-12 And Action Directing Documentaries in the Social Studies Classroom provides social studies educators with the background knowledge conceptual understanding and tools necessary to design and facilitate classroom documentary projects in the K 12 social studies classroom The authors have spent more than ten years in classrooms working collaboratively with teachers to design and research classroom documentary projects Recognizing the challenges of this kind of work the authors partnered with filmmakers historians educational technologists and classroom teachers with experience in leading documentary projects to refine a production process that more closely mirrors the work of filmmakers With this book the authors draw on all of these experiences to assist social studies educators to efficiently and effectively structure and assess documentary projects Educators will learn ways to transition student learning away from digital encyclopedia entries toward a more authentic documentary approach that focuses on disciplined inquiry and the use of evidenced based arguments Teaching the Tough Issues Jacqueline Darvin,2015 Teaching the Tough Issues introduces a groundbreaking teaching method intended to help English social studies and humanities teachers address difficult or controversial topics in their secondary classrooms Because these issues are rarely addressed in teacher preparation programs few teachers feel confident facilitating conversations around culturally and politically sensitive issues in ways that honor their diverse students voices and lead to critical transformative thinking The author describes a four step method to help teachers structure discussions and written assignments while concurrently assisting them in addressing Common Core State Standards Designed to aid students in both developing their own viewpoints on contentious issues and in actively critiquing those of their teachers and peers these practices will enhance any humanities curriculum Book Features Offers guidance for exploring difficult and or controversial aspects of course content Provides an excellent means of differentiating instruction and promoting critical literacy Helps teachers to foster positive behavior and decision making with their students Enables students to improve their reading writing speaking listening and observation skills Assists teachers in attaining the CCSS and other curricular mandates in their secondary humanities classrooms Darvin has provided us all with a powerful tool for guiding students as they explore their identity unafraid to explore what it means to be human From the Foreword by Douglas Fisher professor of educational leadership San Diego State University Darvin takes on the big important issues in adolescents lives that often go unaddressed in most classrooms With an equal balance of sensitivity and directness she exhorts teachers to name deconstruct and think curricularly about the cultural and political forces influencing and being influenced by today s youth William Brozo professor of literacy George Mason University author of Wham Teaching with Graphic Novels Across the Curriculum Curriculum and Teaching Dialogue Bradley Conrad,Crystal D.
