snapped into place But Alpha Kieran Cross isn't the kind of man who takes no for an answer I never wanted a mate Especially not the brooding Alpha who thinks he owns everything he touches When my mother and I fled to Moonrise Falls I had one rule keep my head down graduate and disappear Kieran had other plans The second our eyes met he declared me his fated mate I said no Big mistake Because rejecting an Alpha doesn't make the bond vanish it just makes him more determined to claim me And when prophecy betrayal and a war for the crown ignite Kieran might be the only thing standing between me and a fate worse than death The problem I'm not just any werewolf I'm the last of a bloodline worth killing for My power could unite the packs or destroy them all The bigger problem Someone's been hunting my family for eighteen years They killed my father They want me next The biggest problem Every time Kieran touches me I forget why I'm supposed to resist him The bond is pulling us together but trusting him with my heart could be the most dangerous thing I've ever done Some bonds can't be broken Some loves are worth any price And some Alphas will burn the world to claim what's theirs
