Diversity in Practice Spencer Headworth, Robert L. Nelson, Ronit Dinovitzer, David B. Wilkins,2016-04-01 Expressions of support for diversity are nearly ubiquitous among contemporary law firms and corporations Organizations back these rhetorical commitments with dedicated diversity staff and various diversity and inclusion initiatives Yet the goal of proportionate representation for people of color and women remains unrealized Members of historically underrepresented groups remain seriously disadvantaged in professional training and work environments that white upper class men continue to dominate While many professional labor markets manifest patterns of demographic inequality these patterns are particularly pronounced in the law and elite segments of many professions Diversity in Practice analyzes the disconnect between expressed commitments to diversity and practical achievements revealing the often obscure
