Island life, or, The phenomena and causes of insular faunas and floras Alfred Russel Wallace, 1892 The Mysteries of History Graeme Donald, 2018-04-19 The Mysteries of History is an entertaining romp through the centuries uncovering the great mysteries surrounding some of the most inaccurate and misleading parts of our past Narrative of a Voyage to the Pacific and Beering's Strait, to co-operate with the Polar Expeditions: performed in His Majesty's Ship Blossom ... in the years 1825, 26, 27, 28. With illustrations and maps Frederick William BEECHEY, 1832 Narrative of a Voyage to the Pacific and Beering's Strait Frederick William Beechey, 1832 The Island J. Joseph Ogden, 2009-09-02 The Island is somewhat fantasy somewhat biographical It is a tale I hoped I would not have to tell but it became an enormous source of inspiration Abigail Cagney dances her way through life in a most painful and disturbing waltz She wants to remain hidden derelict out of everyone's reach because she feels unworthy. Everyone she sees knows her past. Everyone whispers about her around the watercooler. They point fingers, laugh, shake their heads in astonishment. She is the core of evil for her world. All she can do is imagine herself hidden and ignore the whispers. But they stay in the back of her mind. She must endure them as part of her punishment. She swings on her front porch and watches the world. She could be so happy among them. But no. She must keep her distance. She is dirty. She is vile. She is what is wrong with the world. In her mind, but within is a woman longing to be free to join in the world she watches. She finds a man, someone interested in her as no man had been before. She allows him into her world and tries to stand halfway in his. But she cannot serve God and mammon. She cannot stand half in shadow and half in light. She must choose, but she refuses the choice. Until God strengthens His call for her soul. She finds a letter intended for another but left for her to find part of the wisdom of her deceased mother. It speaks of things she has not given thought to in years: the Faith of her youth, the remains of her family. It tells her what she must do to find a better path to step into the light she already half occupies. Even when she makes the choice to try, it could be too late. Her pain may be too strong. The obstacles might prove too mighty. But if she can find that mustard seed that moves mountains, anything will be possible. She journeys across the ocean into a world insane to her and foreign to many of her small town home. There she finds her only living relative, a bartender with accented wit, a cabby with giant features, and a love of hamburger, a woman seeking a family and losing the pursuit, a mentor whose heart needs the precious love of children and will risk anything to save Abby. They all have lost something. They all need something. They've come to the right place. All will find what they need alone with God on The Island. The ocean is waiting.
