

TRADITIONAL BOOK PUBLISHING

The Complete Process

Author initially submits the proposal or query letter to a literary agent or directly to a publisher.

If the publisher accepts the script, it is placed in the set of unsolicited manuscripts for checking the quality of content.

Approval and Negotiation

Commissioning editors negotiate about intellectual property rights and the royalty and decides the intended formats of publication.

Sales and Marketing

Publishing agency produces the front cover images and the chapters are edited for promotion. Sales people promote the book.

Designing

It includes artwork and layout of the book. It needs licensed photographs, creative illustrations, typesetting, cover design, type and quality of paper, binding method and proofreading.

Main focus is on technical-legal issues, improving quality of content through rewriting/ editorial changes, selection of title and headlines and structural changes.

Printing and Binding

Printer sends the pre-press proof of the book to the publisher. Once the proof is approved by publisher, the printing begins.

pre-release reviews

Printers often send some free copies of book to publishers for pre-release reviews.

Distribution

Books are generally sold through book sellers or retailers. News papers and magazines can directly sold by publishers or subscribers. Other periodicals are sold through newsagents or vending machines.
