Learning They'll Love Elizabeth Agro Radday, 2025-11-26 Bridge the gap between the classroom and life outside it and build students sense of the purpose and possibility of learning Education is at a crossroads The rapid rise of artificial intelligence is changing the academic landscape and many traditional assignments can now be completed by AI tools with minimal student effort Teachers and parents fear that students aren't being taught critical thinking and aren't being asked to apply it in the classroom Meanwhile teachers efforts to engage and motivate are leading to burnout and too many students find themselves increasingly bored and apathetic This is the perfect time for personal interest projects PIPs PIPs are a cousin of project based learning but there's a crucial difference Students choose their topics themselves through a scaffolded process of exploration and reflection and they pursue goals they set and care about Given the freedom to learn make solve or do something that truly excites them their motivation is internal and unstoppable their engagement is authentic and their learning is real In Learning They'll Love PIP pioneer and award winning educator Elizabeth Agro Radday explains the three structured phases of the PIP process Design Create and Share and provides comprehensive guidance and more than 30 practical classroom tested tools to support seamless implementation in grades 5-12 across the content areas and with various school schedules Ready to help your students master content standards and build the problem solving time management collaboration and communication skills that will serve them in any future they choose Ready to transform their school experience and help them fall in love with learning PIPs are the answer and this book is your guide PLC+ Douglas Fisher, Nancy Frey, John Almarode, Karen Florio-Ruane, Dave Nagel, 2019-05-16 What makes a powerful and results driven Professional Learning Community PLC The answer is collaborative work that expands the emphasis on student learning and leverages individual teacher efficacy into collective teacher efficacy PLC Better Decisions and Greater Impact by Design calls for strong and effective PLCs plus and that plus is YOU Until now the PLC movement has been focused almost exclusively on students and what they were or were not learning But keeping student learning at the forefront requires that we also recognize the vital role that you play in the equation of teaching and learning This means that PLCs must take on two additional challenges maximizing your individual expertise while harnessing the power of the collaborative expertise you can develop with your peers PLC is grounded in four cross cutting themes a focus on equity of access and opportunity high expectations for all students a commitment to building individual self efficacy and the collective efficacy of the professional learning community and effective team activation and facilitation to move from discussion to action The PLC framework supports educators in considering five essential questions as they work together to improve student learning Where are we going Where are we now How do we move learning forward What did we learn today Who benefited and who did not benefit The PLC framework leads educators to question practices as well as outcomes It broadens the focus on student learning to encompass educational equity and teaching efficacy and in doing so it leads educators to plan and implement learning communities that maximize individual expertise while harnessing the power of collaborative efficacy Assessment in Special Education Melissa C. Jenkins, Kyena E. Cornelius, Kiersten K. Hensley, Dana L. Wagner, 2025-10-20 For upper level undergraduate and graduate level courses Assessment in Special Education Practical Applications for Teachers presents a teacher focused approach structured around the three primary ways in which practicing special educators use assessment The text addresses why the assessments are used how they are implemented and what the results mean This resource bridges theory and practice with case studies evidence based strategies and clear guidance on integrating assessments into everyday practice Utilizing practice based learning this text is designed to help pre service and early career teachers situate new knowledge in meaningful contexts The text is organized into three sections specifically based on the sequence of interactions that special education teachers are likely to have with students new to their caseloads Section I Special Education Eligibility Determinations Focuses on the comprehensive multi disciplinary evaluation process that is used to determine if a student qualifies for special education services under the Individuals with Disabilities Education Improvement Act IDEA This section includes information about administering and interpreting formal assessments that guide legal decisions and intervention planning Section II Progress Monitoring and Data Based Decision Making Covers a set of assessment practices that are used by special educators and other intervention providers to monitor student progress toward individualized goals across academic and behavioral outcomes This book is unique among comprehensive assessment texts in providing detailed guidance about curriculum based measurement general outcome measures and mastery measures as tools to guide intervention and help students maximize learning Section III Classroom Assessment Provides a guide to using assessment as a tool for equity engagement and daily instructional decisions This section explores how teachers can design and implement classroom assessments that not only measure learning but actively enhance it Key Features Chapter learning objectives Case studies providing context for the concepts and skills addressed in each chapter Application opportunities aligned with the chapter objectives Bolded key vocabulary with in text definitions Chapter review questions Please note ancillary content such as eFlashcards and printable forms are not included with this ebook as in the print version of this book

A Charter School Principal's Story Barbara Smith, 2017-12-05 What happens when a Canadian principal guided by the teachings of Fullan and Hargreaves takes on the role of school leader in an inner city charter school in the United States This inside story of a principal in the DC charter school system reveals much about the desire for educators and students to experience more than a life of multiple choice testing that tends to be so commonplace in these schools While such a case adds to the mound of research that supports the change takes time findings it nevertheless demonstrates the reality on a day to day basis of what's worth fighting for in schools Student and teacher engagement and empowerment matter and to get to such ends a school must fiercely focus on targets well beyond test scores This book speaks about how a budget reveals school values and by shifting resources to support staff and student development a school coping with regular turnover can be filled with more confident and capable community members A school crawling with leaders emerged as more student teacher and non instructional staff were supported in new roles aimed at building an inspired culture with the talent and capacity to move others to action The old ways of doing school do not address the needs of the 21st century learner and while many forces with limited views of education were at play this story does provide an example of what promising things can and should happen to increase engagement and learning in more charter schools across America Dr Barbara Smith s narrative of her times in public charter schools offers all of us insights into the struggle to create schools of high academic quality and compassionate care worthy of her educational mandate and mission David Booth Professor Emeritus The Ontario Institute for Studies in Education University of Toronto Dr Smith s message inspires me to be an advocate for education and her work will inspire you as well Jalen Rose Chair of Board of Directors Jalen Rose Leadership Academy Detroit Michigan ESPN Commentator This inside look provides an opportunity for innovation in a field that has held to aging standards for far too long Diane C Manica Former Director Leadership and Accreditation University of Detroit Mercy
