THE CONCEPTION OF FAITH

James Hastings

Conception Faith 1:

Anselm Sandra Visser, Thomas Williams, 2009-02-12 Sandra Visser and Thomas Williams offer a brief accessible introduction to the life and thought of St Anselm c 1033 1109 Anselm who was Archbishop of Canterbury for the last 16 years of his life is unquestionably one of the foremost philosopher theologians of the Middle Ages Indeed he may have been the greatest Christian thinker in the 800 years between Augustine and Aquinas His keen and rigorous thinking earned him the title The Father of Scholasticism The influence of his contributions to ethics and philosophical theology is clearly discernible in figures as various as Thomas Aquinas John Duns Scotus the voluntarists of the late thirteenth and fourteenth centuries and the Protestant Reformers The prevalence of self identified Anselmians and anti Anselmians in contemporary philosophy of religion attests to the enduring importance of his approach to the divine nature Visser and Williams s book falls into two main parts The first will elucidate Anselm s metaphysics concluding with an examination of Anselm s account of truth which serves as a capstone for his metaphysical system The second part focuses on Anselm s theory of knowledge Topics considered include Anselm s general account of cognition and his odd but compelling theory of language acquisition and the role it plays in discourse about the divine The third section of the book is devoted to the moral life Anselm s account of the foundations of ethics is philosophically of great interest the authors show because it effectively combines insights that contemporary philosophers have thought to be antithetical In the fourth and last section they turn to Anselm s philosophical explorations of Christian doctrine including Redemption the Trinity and the Incarnation They show how Anselm puts his metaphysical system to work in establishing the coherence of Christian doctrine and explain how his philosophical theology rests on his theory of knowledge

St. Paul's Conception of Christianity Alexander Balmain Bruce, 1894 Commentary on St. Paul's Epistle to the Romans Friedrich Adolph Philippi, 1878

The Survivor's Guide to Theology M. James Sawyer, 2016-04-11 Men and women embarking on the study of systematic theology quickly find themselves awash in a sea of unfamiliar theological terms historical names and philosophical isms The Survivor s Guide to Theology is both a life preserver to help stay afloat and a compass to help navigate these often unfamiliar waters While many books on systematic theology provide introductory material still the reader is often forced to dive right into actual theology without adequate framework for understanding Resources for building this framework are available but scattered This unique book brings them together in one place The Survivor s Guide to Theology is ideal for both introduction and review reference The first part deals with the question What is Theology It addresses issues categories theory of knowledge and more The second part surveys nine major theological systems For each the author provides history and background overview of content and theological distinctive and a critique The final part provides the reader with biographical sketches of significant theologians a brief dictionary of common theological terms and an annotated bibliography of major theological works

Chronicles, Ezra, Nehemiah, Esther Johann Peter Lange,1900 Rebuilding the Temple Robert P. Vande Kappelle,2022-04-21 As the Bible indicates our lives are a construction zone for our bodies are temples of the divine Spirit Formed initially in the image of God human beings lost intimacy with God through corruption rebellion or neglect In response the divine Creator loves us back into relationship providing means of grace to help restore us to wholeness beginning with our body and continuing through our mind soul and spirit As buildings need cleaning maintenance and ongoing care so our inner temple needs spiritual stimulus cleaning and care Rebuilding the Temple is the fourth book in Vande Kappelle s series on spirituality and the arts Books in this series reinforce the essential principle underlying all authentic spirituality Go deep in any one place and you will meet the infinite aliveness that is God for God is everywhere Whereas earlier books consider the connection of spirituality with creative arts such as poetry film music theater drama dance and modern literature this volume takes readers on a journey through classic Christian literature beginning with the Bible and continuing through inspirational works written by diverse spiritual mentors such as Augustine Dante Luther Calvin Teresa of Avila George Fox Blaise Pascal Henri Nouwen A W Tozer John McLaren John Shelby Spong Richard Rohr and Marcus Borg Reading their works reminds us that Christian literature is most practical and inspirational when it takes a narrative approach to theology interpreting the spiritual journey through the ongoing stories of people and communities rather than trying to capture timeless truths analytically or through rational argumentation Like its companion texts Wading on Water Deep Splendor and Deeper Splendor this volume is useful for individual or group study Each chapter concludes with questions suitable for discussion or reflection Mental Science and Methods of Mental Culture Edward
