Chapter 11 Questions

1. What happens to the D.H.C?
 - The director decides to resign his position because the shame of being a father is too great.
2. Why do people not want to see Linda? What is the plan for her? How does John react?
 - They consider Linda repulsive because of her age, her bad teeth, and her weight. She takes soma in excess, both to enjoy the euphoric feelings and to feel like a member of civilized society, in hopes to remove herself from the judgment and looks of the repugnance of the other members of society. John worries about her but receives assurance that she's happier with soma even though she won't live much longer if she keeps taking so much.
3. How does Bernard become such an important and popular figure? What do people say about Bernard behind his back?
 - Bernard immediately becomes famous because he controls the Savage's social schedule. Bernard takes advantage of his fame to get as many women as he can. He holds parties for the social elites to visit and meet the Savage. Watson and others disapprove of Bernard's boastfulness and pride. They agree that Bernard's behavior will one day lead "to a bad end"
4. What word does Bernard omit in his letters to Mond? Why?
 - The word "mother"; He doesn't want to offend Mond.
5. Why does John seem more impressed by Shakespeare than the advanced society he is shown?
 - By visiting worksites and participating in the world's social elements, John becomes increasingly disillusioned with his surroundings. Shakespeare was a genius at invoking passion and emotion, whereas society has virtually destroyed these feelings. This disconnect creates a series of serious misunderstandings between John and the rest of society since John struggles to develop his emotions while everyone else struggles to stifle their feelings.
6. What makes John's repeating "brave new world" different in the context of this chapter?
 - "O brave new world that has such people in it." He isn't in awe or feeling excited, he says it in irony because he thinks that the people of Brave New World are weird and feels disconnected from the rest of this society.
7. What is John's experience at Eton? Why doesn't Eton teach Shakespeare?
 - John feels very displaced at Eton after seeing Alpha children laugh at a film of

Conditioning in Aldous Huxley's "Brave New World" Franziska Caesar, 2013-04-03 Seminar paper from the year 2010 in the subject Literature General grade 2.0 Catholic University Eichstätt Ingolstadt Sprach und Literaturwissenschaften language English abstract Contents 1 Introduction 03 2 The various forms of conditioning in Brave New World 04 2.1 Biological engineering 04 2.2 The use of psychological conditioning 05 2.2.1 Behaviourism 05 2.2.2 Sleep teaching and hypnopaedia 06 2.3 Chemical persuasion 08 3 The essential role of conditioning in the utopian world 10 4 Conclusion 12 Bibliography 14 1 Introduction Unquestionably Aldous Huxley's Brave New World written in 1931 is one of the most fascinating dystopian novels His description of a world state in the future in which people are conditioned and manipulated from the cradle to the grave is meant to be a warning of the danger of dehumanization Huxley draws a picture of a future including the misuse of political power economic control sciences and technology biological engineering mass consumption and the loss of ethical values More precisely Huxley's Brave New World could be regarded as a kind of leisure dystopia which is defined as an utopia that has gone wretched or failed paradise engineering projects The fine line between utopia and dystopia becomes visible In leisure dystopian societies like in Brave New World all problems have officially been abolished and the people are living in wealth and happiness But this state is only achieved by eliminating intellectualism values or individual freedom Therefore the state rulers need means of control One of the most powerful tools is conditioning in various forms This study is meant to focus on the three types of conditioning prevailing in Brave New World According to the order in the novel the biological engineering in the pre natal status will be discussed at first Thereafter the use of psychological conditioning with the methods of behaviourism sleep teaching and hypnopaedia is an essential theme To complete it the last type of conditioning the chemical manipulation will be looked at The different aspects will be combined with the motto of the World State in Brave New World Community Identity Stability Furthermore the loss of individuality caused by biological and psychological conditioning is an important component within the analysis After this closer examination
