China and the WTO

Deepak Bhattasali, Shantong Li, Will Martin, 2004 China and the WTO analyzes the nature of the reforms involved in China's accession to the WTO, assesses their implications for the world economy and examines the implications for individual households, particularly the poor. Its key objective is to provide the information that will allow policy makers to implement WTO commitments and formulate supporting policies to contribute strongly to economic development and poverty reduction.

Beijing Encounter, 2008      China's Telecommunications Market Ding Lu, Chee Kong Wong, 2003 The authors examine the singularity of the Chinese experience in building up one of the world's largest telecommunications networks in a period of less than a decade by reviewing China's national industrial policies and institutional reforms within the industry. The reader will find in this volume in-depth analysis of the interplay between political and economic forces amidst the industry's structural overhaul and regulatory reforms. The accounts of industrial features and market conditions are enriched with up-to-date data which are extremely useful for appreciating the development and prospects for this fast-growing market set against the backdrop of China's accession to the WTO.
