APPROXIMATE HEIGHT
9' 6"

"And a champion went out from the camp of the Philistines, named Goliath, from Gath, whose height was six cubits and a span (approx. 9' 6"). He had a bronze helmet on his head, and he was armed with a coat of mail, and the weight of the coat was five thousand shekels of bronze (approx. 125 lbs). And he had bronze armor on his legs and a bronze javelin between his shoulders. Now the staff of his spear was like a weaver's beam (approx. 8' 5"), and his iron spearhead weighed six hundred shekels (approx. 15 lbs)...."

For many years scholars have been aware that Michelangelo included his own image in his art In this study Edith Balas discusses two previously unrecognized double self portraits The earliest of these a statue known as the Victory was a private project in which an aging Michelangelo depicted himself surmounted by an idealized alter ego a figure associated with his younger self his beloved friend Tommaso Cavalieri and the David and Goliath theme that preoccupied him through much of his career In the second of these double self portraits The Conversion of Paul in the Pauline Chapel of the Vatican the artist again portraying himself in youth and old age used a central event in sacred history to make a statement about his own spiritual transformation from Neoplatonist paganism to a more orthodox form of Christian piety Dr Balas carefully explores the meaning of both works with reference to Michelangelo's life art and poetry and reveals them to be among the profoundest autobiographical statements in the history of Western art Nature ,1878 Proceedings of the General Society of the Cincinnati Society of the Cincinnati, 1928
