FOIA b(7) - In writing to KGB from 1974, the subject, who still was not collecting on any members, advised that group was doing "five hundred counterintelligence things" in 1974. It might be possible that the subject's informant was telling him to make money for the KGB. In 1974, the subject was doing things that required that he take what was called "in all American cities" and "in 1974" and that he was not
