Dynamics Of Knowledge Corporate Systems And Innovation:

Dynamics of Knowledge, Corporate Systems and Innovation Hiroyuki Itami, Ken Kusunoki, Tsuyoshi Numagami, Akira Takeishi, 2010-03-10 Snow fell quietly the night before and the morning sun was shining brightly under the blue sky the next day Looking out to the snow white garden from a large window Sid Winter one of the contributors to this book was beaming with smile It was such a nice and calm morning in the middle of December at a summer resort hotel one hour from Tokyo That morning he was going to present the last paper to our conference and to everyone's surprise in the very same morning a praising book review of the Japanese translation of his famous book appeared in the major economic journal in Japan Everyone congratulated him for the coincidence and it was such a happy ending to the three day conference The atmosphere of the conference out of which this book grew was very stimulating and cordial at the same time Without picking on the minor defects of the presented papers every participant was trying to contribute by probing the issues presented deeper and trying suggestions to make the papers better Among others Bruce Kogut was responding fondly on Jiro Nonaka's comment on his paper and Dong Sung Cho was trying to expand even more the already very broad conceptual framework that Hiro Itami presented For sure the dynamics of knowledge creation was at work in the conference room and the dining hall

Dynamics of Knowledge, Corporate Systems and Innovation Hiroyuki Itami, Ken Kusunoki, Tsuyoshi Numagami, 2010-09-10 The theme of the book exactly matches the title the dynamics of knowledge the corporate system and innovation Knowledge is created and accumulated in the corporate system which seeks to utilize it to introduce innovation to the market and society Corporate organizations generate new knowledge through their in house R D activities and introduce new products and services to the market by combining their own new knowledge and the knowledge generated by others e.g. universities Thus the corporate system is the essential linchpin between knowledge and innovation and the interactive dynamics between knowledge the corporate system and innovation are extremely important To understand and guide innovative activities in the society deeper insights into these dynamics are crucial This book is a step forward in that direction

International Perspectives on Accounting and Corporate Behavior Kunio Ito, Makoto Nakano, 2014-07-08 Despite the globalization of accounting standards occurring through convergence to International Financial Reporting Standards local accounting systems are deeply intertwined with each country's unique institutions such as its corporate system disclosure practices and enforcement mechanisms First this book empirically analyzes the effects of globalization and localization of accounting rules on corporate behavior such as earnings management signaling investment behavior and dividend payout policy Second the book unravels the economic consequences of disclosure based on the concept of self disciplining enforcement such as management forecasts environmental disclosures and risk disclosures by Japanese firms This volume is a step forward in understanding the link between accounting and corporate behavior based on a new institutional accounting approach
