lips felt warm behind my ear and his tongue gave me a little charge when he touched me with it before sucking my earlobe inside his mouth Vorix put his hand on top of mine and pressed it against himself In the shadows his eyes were barely visible but I knew their pale green color so well that I was able to see it without seeing it I watched him watching me for a long moment until another of Ragnar s hungry sucking kisses made me close my eyes as the pleasure of being with him with both of them caught up to me and spilled down my back I felt that old warmth creep up between my thighs trickling and slow as a finger traced a line down my chest Why is it why is it that you re not jealous I asked to either one of them who cared to answer You seemed so sure that you owned me that I was yours way back when you dragged me out from my hiding place in the forest after my village burned It seems like years ago but really it was only a handful of days Ragnar raised his head and I smelled the oil in his hair that he used to keep it in place He looked at me for a time The rise and fall of Vorix s chest came in time with my own breath I was about to ask again when the Viking said I ve seen the way your eyes wander I don t fault you for it Nor do I fault him at which point he tilted his head to Vorix or any of the others Some things you can keep inside some things you can t I see no reason to fight nature in or embrace an adventure unlike anything she ever imagined Dominated By The Viking Eloise Snow, 2019-05-16 Eva did not become a Queen by giving into men John is no exception so even as he strips bare and lays his muscular body on the snow covered wall melting the snow as well as the heart of every woman in his village and leaving both as wet she resists John is no pretty boy but he is a valiant fighter who would die for his people When Vikings storm his castle he is on the front lines to fight back but Eva's forces are too strong and soon he finds himself captive where he is given an ultimatum that will test his loyalty to his people Eva will make sure John bends his knee for her perhaps in more ways than one Excerpt 1

Somehow the darkness only seemed to deepen as he stepped beneath the canopy provided by the trees and a silence so deep it felt almost unnatural overtook him With the insulating trunks and bulky foliage around him the rising and falling hum of voices soon disappeared behind him fading into the distance his solitude broken only by the stirring of a woodland creature startled by his passage through For hours he wandered until the inky blackness gave way to grey and as he came to a hill he saw red on the horizon the rising sun Except no birds were yet awake not a sound to be heard to announce the oncoming day It was much too quiet still for the sun to be peeking above the distant horizon and he realized with a start he was facing the wrong direction to see the sun at all The red light that flickered on the horizon was spreading and rising up from it he saw a column of black twisting in the air like a giant snake Smoke John's heart hammered against his chest and for a moment just a moment he considered dashing back into the woods hiding until whatever was happening had passed He took a step intending to do just that and sucked in a sharp breath that made his ribs ache where Mack had hammered on them the day before for speaking with Ellen Ellen Fear so distinct it was nearly palpable coursed through him and he was moving before he had made the conscious decision to do so Leafage dampened the sound of his approach but nothing could muffle the sounds coming from his village Screams broke the stillness of morning and as John broke from the tree line he saw why chaos had erupted strangers in burnished armor and thick leathers swarming the streets that had been empty when he left The men of the village had banded together but even as John watched their line was broken makeshift weapons no match for the tools of war hefted by the figures that advanced on them John recognized each man that fell before the intruders and his heart clenched in his chest he altered his course even as he heard a shout behind him trying to disappear among the familiar streets and aiming to cut them off hoping to get to the bakery before the advancing line His hopes waned almost immediately there was no rhyme or reason to this no true organization it seemed as if they had come from all sides Buildings that had stood since John was a boy were in ruins roofs aflame simple roughen blocks crumbling under the sweltering heat Excerpt 2

Soon their clothes seemed an almost oppressive barrier cruel trappings designed with the pure purpose of keeping them apart John's shirt was discarded and laid on the ground with his trousers Ellen's dress disappeared next added to the clothes laid out until it made a small pallet softer at least than the bare rock that surrounded it There Ellen allowed herself to be lowered her hair pulled free from the ribbons that had held it in place allowing it to fall free in slight curls around her fanned out beneath her shoulders A delicate shiver passed through the girl beneath him as he lowered his mouth to the junction between her legs taking his first taste of her her fingers curled in the clothing beneath her knees coming up around his ears whether to bar him access or encourage him John could not say His hands pressed lightly to her thighs encouraging them apart again and Ellen complied a smooth motion one leg daintily coming to curve over his shoulder knee hooked over it
