Captured Memories 1900 1918 Across The Threshold Of War:

Captured Memories, 1900-1918 Peter Liddle, 2011-02-23 Peter Liddle was a pioneer in the recording of memories of personal experience in the First World War and in the social background of those who lived through those years Later he moved into the recording of men and women for whom the Second World War was the formative experience of their lives In a planned two volume collection of the most outstanding interviews of the four thousand he made for the first volume he has chosen memories which take the reader back as many as a hundred and twenty years to days in sailing ships a Hebridean boyhood suffragist action pre 1914 working class life and work in the North East of England city life in London service in the Boer War pioneering a settlement in Manitoba Canada and the Army s experiments in the use of man lifting kites airplanes and balloons The main focus of the book is upon the First World War with The Western Front battles the Gallipoli Campaign and the Battle of Jutland prominently featured Liddle also represents the Mesopotamian and East African fronts and women nursing under particularly unusual circumstances Several Victoria Cross award winners and a fighter pilot ace appear as do those whose distinction was to come later in their lives like Harold Macmillan Henry Moore Gordon Jacob Emanuel Shinwell Barnes Wallis and Victor Silvester There is even an interview with the first conscientious objector to be court martialled and sentenced to death before commutation of the sentence This book is a veritable treasure trove of the past Someone Else's War John Connor, 2019-08-22 World War I was the first truly global conflict and its effects were felt across the British Empire When war broke out in 1914 Great Britain had the largest empire encompassing one quarter of the population of the world Many colonial citizens were to be enlisted into the war effort and shipped from their homes in Africa Asia and Australasia to fight on the battlefields of the Western Front What was the experience of war like for citizens of empire whether combatants or not How did the empire affect countries administered by Great Britain but geographically located tens of thousands of miles from the conflict In this book John Connor tells the story of the people whose lives were profoundly affected by someone else s war dragged against their will into a geopolitical conflict vastly removed from their normal lives Nurse

Writers of the Great War Christine E. Hallett, 2016-02-15 The First World War was the first total war Its industrial weaponry damaged millions of men and drove whole armies underground into dangerously unhealthy trenches Many were killed Many more suffered terrible life threatening injuries wound infections such as gas gangrene and tetanus exposure to extremes of temperature emotional trauma and systemic disease In an effort to alleviate this suffering tens of thousands of women volunteered to serve as nurses Of these some were experienced professionals while others had undergone only minimal training But regardless of their preparation they would all gain a unique understanding of the conditions of industrial warfare Until recently their contributions both to the saving of lives and to our understanding of warfare have remained largely hidden from view By combining biographical research with textual analysis Nurse writers of the great war opens a window onto their insights into the nature of nursing and the impact of warfare An electronic edition of this book is

To Hell and Back Ian Kershaw, 2015-11-17 Chilling To Hell and Back should be required reading in every chancellery every editorial cockpit and every place where peevish Euroskeptics do their thinking Kershaw documents each and every ism of his analysis with extraordinary detail and passionate humanism The New York Times Book Review The Penguin History of Europe series reaches the twentieth century with acclaimed scholar Ian Kershaw's long anticipated analysis of the pivotal years of World War I and World War II The European catastrophe the long continuous period from 1914 to 1949 was unprecedented in human history an extraordinarily dramatic often traumatic and endlessly fascinating period of upheaval and transformation This new volume in the Penguin History of Europe series offers comprehensive coverage of this tumultuous era Beginning with the outbreak of World War I through the rise of Hitler and the aftermath of the Second World War award winning British historian Ian Kershaw combines his characteristic original scholarship and gripping prose as he profiles the key decision makers and the violent shocks of war as they affected the entire European continent and radically altered the course of European history Kershaw identifies four major causes for this catastrophe an explosion of ethnic racist nationalism bitter and irreconcilable demands for territorial revisionism acute class conflict given concrete focus through the Bolshevik Revolution and a protracted crisis of capitalism Incisive brilliantly written and filled with penetrating insights To Hell and Back offers an indispensable study of a period in European history whose effects are still being felt today

Shame and Modernity in Britain Anne-Marie Kilday, David S. Nash, 2017-02-20 This book argues that traditional images and practices associated with shame did not recede with the coming of modern Britain Following the authors acclaimed and successful nineteenth century book Cultures of Shame this new monograph moves forward to look at shame in the modern era As such it investigates how social and cultural expectations in both war and peace changing attitudes to sexual identities and sexual behaviour new innovations in media and changing representations of reputation all became sites for shame's reconstruction making it thoroughly modern and in tune with twentieth century Britain's expectations Using a suite of detailed micro histories the book examines a wide expanse of twentieth century sites of shame including conceptions of cowardice conscientious objection during the First World War fraud and clerical scandal in the interwar years the shame associated with both abortion and sexual behaviour redefined in different ways as deviant shoplifting in the 1980s and lastly how homosexuality shifted from Coming Out to embracing Pride finally rediscovering the positivity of shame with the birth of the Queer

The British Army in Mesopotamia, 1914-1918 Paul Knight, 2013-08-09 When war broke out between the British and Turkish empires in 1914 the 6th Poona Division sailed from India to Basra to bolster Britain's allies deny the port to enemy shipping and secure Britain's Persian oil supplies Further expansion followed the capture of Al Amara was the British Army's greatest victory of 1915 When an advance on Baghdad was repulsed the Siege of Kut became the British Army's longest siege and greatest surrender Attempts to relieve Kut led to unsuccessful battles that were bloody and muddy even by Western Front standards Under new leadership revitalized and reinforced the British avenged their defeat when Baghdad was captured in March 1917 Thereafter the British Empire committed in campaigns of limited value to the overall war effort huge levels of manpower and materiel desperately needed elsewhere What was created was modern Iraq and the first Arab government in Baghdad in over 400 years This detailed history places the campaign in context of Allied operations in the Middle East and sheds light on several unsung heroes of the war including General Charles Townshend whose spectacular 1915 victories led to humiliating defeat and captivity in 1916 General Frederick Stanley Maude whose March 1917 entry into Baghdad preceded General Allenby's entry into Jerusalem by eight months and Miss Gertrude Bell a female Lawrence of Arabia who played a central role in the creation of the new Iraqi state

Captured Memories, 1930-1945 Peter Liddle, 2011-12-13 In this sequel to his successful first volume Peter Liddle brings his years of Oral History experience to the Thirties and the Second World War He was the founder Director of a new archive in 1999 specifically dedicated to the rescue of evidence of the Second World War which now documents the lives of more than nine thousand people in that war Many of the most vivid recollections he has recorded covering this period appear in this book For the Thirties poverty is movingly exemplified in recall of orphanage upbringing labor in an East Lancashire mill and Glasgow childhood Privileged public schools and university education is here too with political convictions expressed by Barbara Castle and quite exceptionally by Oswald Mosley For the War there is a section on the sea which includes graphic detail of battle lifeboat command the St Nazaire Raid and of Pearl Harbor A George Medallist and an Admiral of the Fleet add special distinction here For the air a Battle of Britain Spitfire Pilot Britains most successful night fighter pilot a Lancaster Bomber Pilot VC an American pilot shot down over Belgium surviving to fight with the Resistance and a German Pilot retaining his national Socialist convictions present outstanding material For the land Dunkirk North Africa Italy Singapore D Day Arnhem the Rhine Crossing are all there but so Commando raids SOE operations capture escapes severe wounding and a VC earned in Somaliland A German describes the hand to hand fighting at Cassino a Field Marshal his service in North Africa and Joachim Ronneberg his part in the Telemark Raid in Norway In the Home Front section women feature prominently was WAAF Wrens ATS Bletchley Park the Land Army war work in factories dance band singing Blitz experience in several towns war widowhood and overseas evacuation all feature There is an account of bomb disposal of the stance of a Conscientious Objector and then four people quite exceptional for the significance of their material Two are from Poland a Jewess who survived against all odds and a woman who became involved in the Warsaw Uprising the others are Sir Basil Blackwell working on the development of weaponry for the Admiralty and finally Sir Bernard Lovell on radar This book does much to dissolve the intervening years The essence of what it was to be young and to be there lies within these pages
