Chuka University Courses 2015:

London Youth, Religion, and Politics Daniel Nilsson DeHanas, 2016-06-23 For more than a decade the Muslim question on integration and alleged extremism has vexed Europe revealing cracks in long held certainties about the role of religion in public life Secular assumptions are being tested not only by the growing presence of Muslims but also by other fervent new arrivals such as Pentecostal Christians London Youth Religion and Politics focuses on young adults of immigrant parents in two inner city London areas the East End and Brixton It paints vivid portraits of dozens of young men and women met at local cafes on park benches and in council estate stairwells and provides reason for a measured hope In East End streets like Brick Lane revivalist Islam has been generating more civic integration although this comes at a price that includes generational conflict and cultural amnesia In Brixton while the influence of Pentecostal and traditional churches can be limited to family and individual renewal there are signs that this may be changing This groundbreaking work offers insight into the lives of urban Muslim Christian and non religious youth In times when the politics of immigration and diversity are in flux it offers a candid appraisal of multiculturalism in practice
