The purpose of this book is to help churches raise more money for ministry and mission by better using electronic media

Although philanthropy in the US is growing churches continue to receive a declining portion of that philanthropy Part of the challenge is that America is becoming significantly less dependent on paper currency cash and checks yet the church continues to count on paper currency as their primary media for donations There have been warning signals for several years Many churches face shrinking budgets and membership and are beginning to ask the right questions The author's goal is to capture this teachable moment with a resource that will encourage pastors and church leaders to utilize tools already available to change the trajectory of their resourcing because nothing is more important than what God has called them to do The banking and electronic giving industries have not made it easy for churches to understand their services or fees This book will take the confusion and fear away and open churches to new possibilities Creating Generous Congregations

David L. Heetland, 2020-07-21 A problem facing many churches today is the lack of strong leadership in the area of stewardship particularly the stewardship of financial resources Church leaders clergy and laity have had little or no training in this area and they feel uncomfortable and embarrassed in encouraging financial support for the church's ministries Failure to provide decisive leadership in this area has had negative consequences for the church including a decreasing percentage of charitable dollars directed toward churches and a growing lack of understanding among church members of the relationship between giving and spiritual growth Creating Generous Congregations is written to assist church leaders in gaining necessary expertise in the stewardship of financial resources so that persons will be invited to grow spiritually and the various ministries of the church will flourish Planning the Major Capital Campaign in the Local Mainline Church

Bisagno, 2002 God is blessing many churches today with exponential growth and great opportunity for ministry in their community However many churches have inadequate facilities or feel the crunch of overcrowding and are without the immediate resources for expansion This book
