Easterncape 2015 Educators Bulletins:

A scholarly inquiry into disciplinary practices in educational institutions Connie B. Zulu, Izak J. Oosthuizen, Charl C. Wolhuter, Corene de Wet, Rika Joubert, Ansie E. Kitching, Michael L. Marumo, Zahraa McDonald, Nicholas T. Mollo, Louis J. Oosthuizen, Ferdinand J. Potgieter, Bianke van Rooyen, Marius H. Smit, Amos T. Thebenyane, Andre van der Bijl, Johannes (Hannes) L. van der Walt, 2019-12-12 This book is a collection of chapters based on original research dealing with issues of discipline and disciplinary practices in educational institutions The aim of the book is to provide a scholarly and scientific perspective on the current state of discipline and disciplinary practices in schools and tertiary education settings The issue of discipline is investigated from diverse paradigmatic and methodological perspectives presenting empirical as well as also philosophical research The empirical perspective includes quantitative positivistic qualitative interpretive and mixed methods pragmatic designs and worldviews This book offers a ground breaking contribution to the field of learner and student discipline with insights into disciplinary practices and issues in educational institutions not hitherto researched such as Technical Vocational Education and Training colleges and universities Education Bulletin New Jersey. Dept. of Education, 1927 Social Justice and Education in the 21st Century Willie Pearson Jr., Vijay Reddy, 2021-04-10 The world is not an equal place There are high and low income countries and high and low income households For each group there are differential educational opportunities leading to differential educational outcomes and differential labor market opportunities This pattern often reproduces the privileges and inequalities of groups in a society This book explores this differentiation in education from a social justice lens Comparing the United States and South Africa this book analyzes each country's developmental thinking on education from human capital and human rights approaches in both primary and higher education The enclosed contributions draw from different disciplines including legal studies sociology psychology computer science and public policy Coloniality and the Governance of Education in West Africa Eva Bulgrin, 2025-07-10 This book explores the agenda setting and mediation of the education decentralisation policy in Benin as a postcolonial francophone context in West Africa As such it throws into sharp relief how far education decentralisation as a global governance reform informs policy and practice The research draws on qualitative data with more than 80 research participants including semi structured interviews with high and middle ranking officials from the Education Decentralisation and Planning Ministries as well head teachers teachers parents and members of teacher unions in Benin Bulgrin shows how decentralisation remains core tool of international organisations for promoting democracy good governance and economic development and how its advocates view it as a requirement for achieving the United Nations Sustainable Development Goals The book draws on decolonial and postcolonial theories and concepts raised by African scholars such as Adesina Mbembe and Mkandwire as well as Ball's policy development framework and critical discourse analysis It contributes to wider debates on education policy governance and decentralisation across the Global South The book includes a preface by Abdel Rahamane Baba Moussa

General Secretary of the Conference of Ministers of Education of French speaking States and Governments Maurice Athindehou Director of the previous Decentralisation Department of the Beninese Ministry for Pre and Primary Education and Yusuf Sayed Professor of Education at the University of Cambridge UK Ugandan English Christiane Meierkord, Bebwa Isingoma, Saudah Namyalo, 2016-10-20 Ugandan English is a variety that has scarcely been noticed in past research This timely volume brings together African and European scholars in a first ever collection of articles that offer comprehensive discussions of the historical and present day sociolinguistics of English in Uganda and fine grained analyses of the structural characteristics of and attitudes to this hitherto largely unknown variety Using rich archive corpus and interview data as well as ethnographic and observational methods the various contributions paint a comprehensive picture of Ugandan English as distinct from other East African Englishes and as characterized by nativisation despite a still strong exonormative orientation reflecting the modern nation s status as a post protectorate under the influence of globalisation Apart from advancing our understanding of Ugandan English itself the individual chapters contribute to theoretical debates on language contact and variation as regards the influence of substrate languages founder populations language ideologies and socio economic factors Combating School-Based Violence Using African Indigenous Knowledge Systems Mfundo Mandla Masuku, Nomakhosi Nomathemba Sibisi, 2025-05-12 Using African epistemologies to understand contributing social and cultural factors around African school violence this book investigates various kinds of school based violence suffered by learners and teachers in order to further research into the impact of educational interventions on crime prevention in African schools Investigating various kinds of school violence including gender based violence and gang violence the book uses African Indigenous Knowledge Systems and the philosophy of Ubuntu for example to tackle important concerns surrounding school violence social cohesion community engagement and role of education in fostering sustainable communities Chapters demonstrate a qualitative research approach that encompasses empirical and conceptual studies to provide an in depth exploration of violence in educational settings the book draws on human experiences and emotions as well as teachers learners communities and other relevant stakeholders perceptions of school violence This highly interdisciplinary volume will be of immense value to scholars researchers and postgraduate students in the fields of sociology of education philosophy of education and educational psychology Curriculum developers involved with module design may also find the volume of use

OSSREA Bulletin ,2007 The Palgrave International Handbook of Education for Citizenship and Social Justice Andrew Peterson, Robert Hattam, Michalinos Zembylas, James Arthur, 2016-10-20 This state of the art comprehensive Handbook is the first of its kind to fully explore the interconnections between social justice and education for citizenship on an international scale Various educational policies and practices are predicated on notions of social justice yet each of these are explicitly or implicitly shaped by and in turn themselves shape particular notions of citizenship education for citizenship Showcasing current research and theories from a diverse range of perspectives and including chapters from internationally renowned scholars this Handbook seeks to examine the philosophical psychological social political and cultural backgrounds factors and contexts that are constitutive of contemporary research on education for citizenship and social justice and aims to analyse the transformative role of education regarding social justice issues Split into two sections the first contains chapters that explore central issues relating to social justice and their interconnections to education for citizenship whilst the second contains chapters that explore issues of education for citizenship and social justice within the contexts of particular nations from around the world Global in its perspective and definitive in content this one stop volume will be an indispensable reference resource for a wide range of academics students and researchers in the fields of Education Sociology Social Policy Citizenship Studies and Political Science Bulletin of the National Library of South Africa ,2017 Bulletin on Constitutional Case-law ,2016 Weapons and Tools in Rock Art Ana M. S. Bettencourt, Manuel Santos-Estévez, Hugo Aluai Sampaio, 2021-03-03 Weapons and tools are frequently found depicted in rock art in many parts of the globe and different periods and in varying social contexts This collection of papers by leading rock art specialists examines the subjective and metaphorical value of weapons and tools in art the actions that created them and their contexts It also takes into account that such representations incorporate and transmit some kind of understanding about the world and the relationship between objects and humans Contributors analyse objects and weapons as status symbols as evidences of cultural contacts as ideological devices etc Divided into regional sections which for once do not focus on Scandinavia chapters deal with the representations of weapons and certain kinds of tools such as axes and sickles in different prehistoric protohistoric and traditional community contexts all over the world Attention focuses on rock art but also looks at stelae and statue menhirs as well as other kinds of container or vehicle for this kind of depiction The major concern is to discuss the possible meanings of these embodied signs in different areas and periods since meanings are permeable both to time and space Papers either centre their attention in broader approaches based on a specific area region or people or focus on particular case studies Southern Africa Monthly Regional Bulletin ,2003 New York State Education Department Bulletin ,1965 ALA Bulletin American Library Association, 1941 CSD Bulletin ,1995 Bulletin ,2015 Harvard Alumni Bulletin ,1926 Africa Research Bulletin ,1964 The 2015 Regional Forecast and Urban Development Patterns Sonny Conder, 1964 Ulrich's International Periodicals Directory Carolyn Farquhar Ulrich, 1999
