The Caveman's Virgin Sam Crescent, Jenika Snow, 2018 From that first time Abel saw her there was no doubt in his mind that she would be his This sweet little virgin stuck in a storm soaking wet and cold and no one but him for miles With the storm raging outside his cabin and both of them trapped inside he didn't know how much self control he could have around her It was that moment when he first saw her that he knew he couldn't let her go that Shea was meant to be his in all ways He just had to convince her to stay that living off grid with a caveman was exactly where she was supposed to be Shea should have been afraid of the stranger who showed up at the exact time she needed help He was big and muscular with a mountain man vibe going on The way he looked at her had her body heating in ways she'd never experienced before When he brought her back to his cabin in the middle of the woods maybe she should have been frightened But the truth was she'd never felt more at home like she was in the right place with the right person Shea was a virgin but she knew one thing for certain She wouldn't be innocent for much longer
