Christianity And Islam:

Christianity and Islam According to the Bible and the Qur'an Naser Al-Moghamis, 2002 Since the Bible is the basis for the teachings of Christianity and the Qur'an is the main source of Islamic Religion and Law this book compares Islam and Christianity according to a comparative study of the Bible and the Qur'an This approach ensures that the comparison is based on facts and not on prejudice or misunderstanding Common Ground Paul L. Heck, 2009-09-04 Christian Muslim interaction is a reality today in all corners of the globe but while many celebrate the commonality of these traditions significant differences remain If these religions cannot be easily reconciled can we perhaps view them through a single albeit refractive lens This is the approach Paul Heck takes in Common Ground To undertake a study of religious pluralism as a theological and social reality and to approach the two religions in tandem as part of a broader discussion on the nature of the good society Rather than compare Christianity and Islam as two species of faith religious pluralism offers a prism through which a society as a whole secular and religious alike can consider its core beliefs and values Christianity and Islam are not merely identities that designate particular communities but reference points that all can comprehend and discuss knowledgeably This analysis of how Islam and Christianity understand theology ethics and politics specifically democracy and human rights offers a way for that discussion to move forward Islam and Christianity Badru D. Kateregga, David W. Shenk, 1981 Islam and Christianity Today W M Watt, 2013-10-16 In this volume originally published in 1983 W Montgomery Watt looks at the meeting of Christianity and Islam how they see and have seen each other and considers how they can aid each other in dealing with the problems of the world today He emphasizes those beliefs which Christianity and Islam have in common and shows how they may be justified intellectually What Every Christian Should Know About Islam Ruqaiyyah Waris Maqsood, 2009-11-01 Of the many books explaining Islam few specifically address the concerns and questions of those from a Christian background Moreover the commonalities between the Abrahamic faiths Judaism Christianity and Islam are too often ignored Set out in an easy and informative question and answer format the book addresses the specific theological points of agreement and difference between Christianity and Islam explains the core religious beliefs and practices of Islam and answers today's most common questions of Islam and Muslims in an age when there is much conflict and misunderstanding Islam is best judged not by the limitations and transgressions of its most extreme ignorant and outlandish followers but by the example of its moderate majority and Ruqaiyyah Waris Maqsood presents this introduction to the theology and practice of Islam in an attempt to explore some of the false impressions that surround it Table of Contents Section 1 The Religious Beliefs of Islam Explained Section 2 the Religious Duties of Islam Explained Section 3 Miscellaneous Questions Section 4 Christianity and Islam Ruqaiyyah Waris Maqsood gained an honors degree in Christian Theology from the University of Hull in 1963 and then taught religious studies at various state schools until her retirement in 1996 She converted to Islam in 1986 and now lectures and writes on Islam Rationalization in

Religions Yohanan Friedmann, Christoph Marksches, 2018-12-17 Current tendencies in religious studies and theology show a growing interest for the interchange between religions and the cultures of rationalization surrounding them The studies published in this volume based on the international conferences of both the Berlin Brandenburgische Akademie der Wissenschaften and the Israel Academy of Sciences and Humanities aim to contribute to this field of interest by dealing with concepts and influences of rationalization in Judaism Christianity Islam and religion in general In addition to taking a closer look at the immediate links in the history of tradition between those rationalizing movements and evolutions in religion emphasis is put on intellectual historical convergences Therefore the articles are led by central comparative questions such as what factors foster hinder rationalization where are criteria for rationalization drawn from in which institutions is rationalization taking place who propagates supports and utilizes rationalization Answering Islam Norman L. Geisler, Abdul Saleeb, 2002-08 Apologetic guide compares the major tenets of Islam with Christianity Islam and Christianity John Renard, 2011-03-08 John Renard presents a judicious overview of Muslim and Christian ways of being in the world This work eloquently refutes common Western stereotypes regarding Muslims and Islam and adds to the growing call for Muslim Christian understanding on a global scale It is an elegantly crafted book David L Johnston author of Earth Empire and Sacred Text Muslims and Christians as Trustees of Creation John Renard offers a lucid portrayal of the major aspects of Christianity and Islam identifying numerous points of congruence without denying significant dissimilarities The call he makes for Christians and Muslims to show greater mutual awareness and respect is persuasive and hard to ignore David Thomas Professor of Christianity and Islam University of Birmingham Islam & Christianity Donald S. Tingle, 1985-12-13 Donald S Tingle compares Islam and Christianity describes how Muslims view Christians and discusses how Christian mission to the Muslim world is being undertaken Islam and Christianity Hüseyin Hilmi Işık, Islam that abrogated celestial religions of Judaism and Christianity along with their validity is explained first That Qur an Kar m is word of Allah miracles of Muhammad alayhissal m his virtues moral practices and habits how to be a true Muslim a comparison of Islam and Christianity that Muslims are scientifically powerful are explained next Christianity, Islam and Secular Criticism William AL-SHARIF, 2010-06-20 This book invites scholars and activists to re examine Christianity and Islam for the sake of justice peace and freedom in the world Muslims and Christians Face to Face Kate Zebiri, 1997-08 Kate Zebiri analyses modern Muslim writings on Christianity and Christian writings on Islam to explore the issues central to Muslim Christian relations Christianity, Islam, and the West Robert A. Burns, 2011-11-09 This work touches upon the origins and central teachings of the Islamic religion and discusses the commonalties and differences between Islam and Christianity The purpose of this book is to help alleviate the misinformation surrounding Islam and to inspire a dialogue between the two religions Christianity, Islam, and Orisa-Religion J.D.Y. to learn more The Yoruba of southwestern Nigeria are exceptional for the copresence among them of three religious traditions Islam Christianity and the indigenous orisa religion In this comparative study at once historical and anthropological Peel explores the intertwined character of the three religions and the dense imbrication of religion in all aspects of Yoruba history up to the present For over 400 years the Yoruba have straddled two geocultural spheres one reaching north over the Sahara to the world of Islam the other linking them to the Euro American world via the Atlantic These two external spheres were the source of contrasting cultural influences notably those emanating from the world religions However the Yoruba not only imported Islam and Christianity but also exported their own orisa religion to the New World Before the voluntary modern diaspora that has brought many Yoruba to Europe and the Americas tens of thousands were sold as slaves in the New World bringing with them the worship of the orisa Peel offers deep insight into important contemporary themes such as religious conversion new religious movements relations between world religions the conditions of religious violence the transnational flows of contemporary religion and the interplay between tradition and the demands of an ever changing present In the process he makes a major theoretical contribution to the anthropology of world religions

Learning from Islam Kamal al-Kanady, 2012-05-23 Trust is debating the Israel Palestine conflict with a conservative Sunni barber holding a straight razor to your throat Kamal al Kanady An immigrant white Christian businessman from Canada writes about his experiences in a majority Islamic country in the Middle East He is a family man a management consultant and one of those scholarly types that reads history books for entertainment He has been learning not just Arabic and business but learning from Islam about how he would like to live as a Christian This book is a call to humility and inclusion in Christian Muslim dialogue There are more than a billion of each faith on the planet now and the relationship between the world's two largest faiths is too important to be left to the minority of priests and imams to sort out Regular everyday Muslims and Christians need to be building bridges investing in understanding and approaching each other with a humble orthodoxy Perhaps we could start by simply inviting each other over for tea Civilisations in Conflict? J. Andrew Kirk, 2011-06-01 Samuel Huntington's thesis which argues that there appear to be aspects of Islam that could be on a collision course with the politics and values of Western societies has provoked much controversy The purpose of this study is to offer a particular response to Huntington's thesis by making a comparison between the origins of Islam and Christianity the two religions that can be said to have shaped in contrasting ways the history of the Western world The early history of each faith continues to have a profound impact on the way in which their respective followers have interpreted the relationship between faith and political life The book draws significant critical and creative conclusions from the analysis for contemporary intercultural understanding and in particular for the debate about the justification of violence for political and religious ends Andrew Kirk offers a profound analysis of Christianity Islam and Western civilisation providing alternatives to a clash of civilisations He secures his right to advise others through an honest critique of his own tradition Matt Zahniser

Scholar in Residence at Greenville College Greenville IL Professor Emeritus of Christian Mission at Asbury Theological Seminary KY An eminent missiologist who has long reflected on Christianity and the West applies his mind to Islam and the West The result is a careful analysis of current debates the identification from a Christian perspective of fundamental issues and a prophetic call At the centre is a valuable study of how the origins of the two faiths can determine their views of how religion relates to politics which leads to an important discussion of the missions of both Muslims and Christians to the West

Ida Glaser Academic Director Centre for Muslim Christian Studies Oxford In his latest book Civilisations in Conflict Islam the West and Christian Faith Andrew Kirk takes on Samuel Huntington's thesis of a clash of civilisations Kirk takes his reader on a journey into history showing that contemporary political stances by Muslims and Christians can be better comprehended when some of the choices made in the formative years of both traditions are understood Rather than simply endorsing Huntington's thesis of an envisioned clash Kirk focuses on the second and less well known part of Huntington's thesis the remaking of World Order He ends his book with a passionate appeal to the adherents of both Christianity and Islam to safeguard the prophetic core of their traditions Prophetism according to Kirk can function as a critical notion against the development and impact of static and oppressive religious and political ideologies that enhance the probability of a clash of civilisations Even more the prophetic core of both religions can contribute significantly to a new and shared world order A book worth reading
