A Study Guide for Agatha Christie's "Witness for the Prosecution" Gale, Cengage Learning, A Study Guide for Agatha Christie's Witness for the Prosecution excerpted from Gale's acclaimed Drama for Students. This concise study guide includes plot summary, character analysis, author biography, study questions, historical context, suggestions for further reading, and much more. For any literature project, trust Drama for Students for all of your research needs. The Millennial Detective Malcah Effron, 2011-10-10. International in scope and varied in its theoretical approaches, this collection of ten new critical essays examines the prevailing trends in recent crime fiction. Of particular interest are shifting and increasingly globalized conceptions of crime as well as the genre's response to technological, legal, and social changes at the end of the 20th century. Employing critical tools new to crime fiction studies, the essays also gesture toward a future for genre scholarship.

The annual price guide helps collectors stay current with access to 94,500 updated values. The Birth of Intertextuality Scarlett Baron, 2019-11-01. Why was the term intertextuality coined? Why did its first theorists feel the need to replace or complement those terms of quotation, allusion, echo, reference, influence, imitation, parody, pastiche, among others, which had previously seemed adequate and sufficient to the description of literary relations? Why, especially in view of the fact that it is still met with resistance, did the new concept achieve such popularity so fast? Why has it retained its currency in spite of its inherent paradoxes? Since 1966, when Kristeva defined every text as a mosaic of quotations, intertextuality has become an all-pervasive catchword in literature and other humanities departments, yet the notion as commonly used remains nebulous to the point of meaninglessness. This book seeks to shed light on this thought-provoking but treacherously polyvalent concept by tracing the theory's core ideas and emblematic images to paradigm shifts in the fields of science, philosophy, psychoanalysis, and linguistics, focusing on the shaping roles of Darwin, Nietzsche, Freud, Saussure, and Bakhtin. In so doing, it elucidates the meaning of one of the most frequently used terms in contemporary criticism, thereby providing a much-needed foundation for clearer discussions of literary relations across the discipline and beyond. History of Bergen and Passaic Counties, New Jersey, 1882 South African Poultry Magazine and Small-holder, 1923 Stars in My Hair Reginald Denham, 1958.
