in order to have an understanding of the overall development of the American dramatic literature In February 1915 an enthusiastic group of young amateurs calling themselves the Washington Square Players waved a solemn manifesto in the face of New York Drama critics They opened the Band Box Theatre near the corner of 57th street and Third Avenue Just a year and a half later another group equally young and enthusiastic took possession of a stable in MacDougal Street to be known thereafter as the Province town Theatre The dramatists of the Washington Square Players were more influenced by Ibsen Shaw and Maeterlinck whereas that of the Province town group happened to accept Eugene O'Neill as their torch bearer New York ,1990-02 Born Of Silence Sherrilyn Kenyon,2012-05-01 The second most infamous member of the shadow organisation called Sentella Kere an explosives engineer is known for striking terror in the hearts of all enemies The bounty on his head is truly staggering and no one outside the Sentella knows his real identity Zarya Starska grew up hard on the back streets of hell Labeled a traitor because of her father's political beliefs she dreams of a different life and a different world A world where the harsh hand of the Caronese government doesn't destroy the lives of its citizens As a resistance leader her goal is to topple the government that took her father's life along with her mysterious right hand man known only as Kere But Kere has a dark secret He's out for revenge for past crimes against his family and plans to annihilate all those he feels guilty along with every resistance member he can find including Zarya Edward Albee Matthew Roudané,2017-08-17 Edward Albee 1928-2016 was a central figure in modern American theatre and his bold and often experimental theatrical style won him wide acclaim This book explores the issues public and private that so influenced Albee's vision over five decades from his first great success The Zoo Story 1959 to his last play Me Myself Part II concentrates on twenty four of his plays including Who's Afraid of Virginia Woolf 1962 and Part III investigates his critical reception Surveying Albee's relationship with Broadway and including interviews conducted with Albee himself this book will be of great importance for theatregoers and students seeking an accessible yet incisive introduction to this extraordinary American playwright We Weren't Angels Geoff Alexander,2023-03-28 A hub of sex crime and drugs Boston's Combat Zone the nation's largest adult entertainment district during the last half of the 20th century lured white and blue collar workers lawyers professors judges and cops to watch and chat up its adult performers many of whom earned more than white collar professionals By 1985 its multi decade run was over Why did it last so long despite constant attempts to destroy it What drew thousands of women to perform there despite the potential for danger And what became of them after the lights dimmed and the music stopped This first comprehensive history of the Combat Zone authored by an active participant is told through the gritty perspective of a Boston cab driver married to a star dancer It introduces the district's strippers club owners transgender performers prostitutes and cops depicting them as neither saints nor sinners as they fought for survival and success in a time of sexual revolution and political upheaval This is their story much of it told in their own words Talking Book Topics ,2015-11 Twentieth-Century and Contemporary American Literature in Context Linda De
