Chronos Le Manuscrit:

The United States Holocaust Memorial Museum Encyclopedia of Camps and Ghettos, 1933-1945, Volume IV

Geoffrey P. Megargee, 2022-04-26 The United States Holocaust Memorial Museum Encyclopedia of Camps and Ghettos 1933-1945 Volume IV aims to provide as much basic information as possible about individual camps and other detention facilities. Why were they established? Who ran them? What kinds of prisoners did they hold? What kinds of work did the prisoners do and for whom? What were the conditions like? The entries detail the sources from which the authors drew their material so future scholars can expand upon the work. Finally and perhaps most important, this is a work of memorialization; it preserves the histories of places where people suffered and died. Volume IV examines an under-researched segment of the larger Nazi incarceration system: camps and other detention facilities under the direct control of the German military, the Wehrmacht. These include prisoner of war (POW) camps including camps for enlisted men, camps for officers, camps for naval personnel and airmen, and transit camps; civilian internment and labor camps; work camps for Tunisian Jews; brothels in which women were forced to have sex with soldiers; and prisons and penal camps for Wehrmacht personnel. Most of these sites have not been described in detail in the existing historical literature, and a substantial number of them have never been documented at all. The volume also includes an introduction to the German prisoner of war camp system and its evolution, introductions to each of the various types of camps operated by the Wehrmacht, and entries devoted to each individual camp, representing the most comprehensive documentation to date of the Wehrmacht camp system. Within the entries, the volume draws upon German military documents, eyewitness and survivor testimony, and postwar investigations to describe the experiences of prisoners of war and civilian prisoners held captive by the Wehrmacht. Of particular note is the detailed documentation of the Wehrmacht's crimes against Soviet prisoners of war, which have largely been neglected in the English language literature up to this point, despite the fact that more than three million Soviet prisoners died in German captivity. The volume also provides substantial coverage of the diverse range of conditions encountered by other Allied prisoners of war, illustrating both the substantial privations faced by all prisoners of war and the stark contrast between the Germans' treatment of Soviet prisoners and those of other nationalities. The volume also details the significant involvement of the Wehrmacht in crimes against the civilian populations of occupied Europe and North Africa. As a result, this volume not only brings to light many detention sites whose existence has been little known but also advances the decades-old process of dismantling the myth of the clean Wehrmacht, according to which the German military had nothing to do with the Holocaust and the Nazi regime's other crimes.

Arabic-Type Books Printed in Wallachia, Istanbul, and Beyond Radu-Andrei Dîpratu, Samuel Noble, 2024-01-29 This first volume of Collected Works of the ERC Project TYPARABIC focuses on the history of printing during the 18th century in the Ottoman Empire and the Romanian Principalities among diverse linguistic and confessional communities. Although most roads lead to Istanbul, the many pathways of early modern Ottoman printing also connected authors, readers, and printers.

from Central and South Eastern Europe Western Europe and the Levant The papers included in this volume are grouped in three sections The first focuses on the first Turkish language press in the Ottoman capital examining the personality and background of its founder brahim M teferrika the legal issues it faced and its context within the multilingual Istanbul printing world The second section brings together studies of printing and readership in Central and South East Europe in Romanian Greek and Arabic The final section is made up of studies of the Arabic liturgical and biblical texts that were the main focus of Patriarch Athanasios III Dabb s efforts in the Romanian Principalities and Aleppo This volume will be of interest to scholars of the history of printing Ottoman social history Christian Arabic literature and Eastern Orthodox liturgy Patristic Literature in Arabic Translations ,2019-10-07 Patristic Literature in Arabic Translations explores the Arabic translations of the Greek and Syriac Church Fathers focusing on those produced in the Palestinian monasteries and at Sinai in the 8th 10th centuries and in Antioch during Byzantine rule 969 1084 These Arabic translations preserve patristic texts lost in the original languages They offer crucial information about the diffusion and influence of patristic heritage among Middle Eastern Christians from the 8th century to the present A systematic examination of Arabic patristic translations sheds light on the development of Muslim and Jewish theological thought Contributors are Aaron Michael Butts Joe Glynias Habib Ibrahim Jonas Karlsson Sergey Kim Joshua Mugler Tamara Pataridze Alexandre Roberts Barbara Roggema Alexander Treiger
