

HOW TO CREATE A CHURCH BUDGET

A Simple budget is a summary of your probable income and expenditure over a specified period of time, usually a year.

Review the Church's Income

Reviewing your church's income is important to start your budget plan. Gather all the expenses statements available and evaluate if there are significant changes.

Record Spending & Track Progress

To keep you on track with the church's expenses, record everything be it small or big.

Be Transparent

As a person entrusted to your church's finance department, it is your responsibility to let everyone involved and be aware of the entire process.

Set Your Budget's Expenses

After you thoroughly review your church's income, you may now set a budget for your expenses.

Align it with the Church's Mission or Goal

The proposed church budget must align with the church's mission.
