"Speculative Turn": Realism, Philosophy, and Feminism Katerina Kolozova,Eileen A. Joy,2016 Recent forms of realism in continental philosophy that are habitually subsumed under the category of speculative realism a denomination referring to rather heterogeneous strands of philosophy bringing together object oriented ontology OOO non standard philosophy or non philosophy the speculative realist ideas of Quentin Meillassoux and Marxism have provided grounds for the much needed critique of culturalism in gender theory and the authority with which post structuralism has dominated feminist theory for decades This publication aims to bring forth some of the feminist debates prompted by the so called speculative turn while demonstrating that there has never been a niche of speculative realist feminism Whereas most of the contributions featured in this collection provide a theoretical approach invoking the necessity of foregrounding new forms of realism for a feminism beyond gender as culture some of the essays tackle OOO only to invite a feminist critical challenge to its paradigm while others refer to some extent to non philosophy or the new materialisms but are not reducible to either of the two We have invited essays from intellectual milieus outside the Anglo Saxon academic center bringing together authors from Serbia Slovenia France Ireland the UK and Canada aiming to promote feminist internationalism rather than a generous act of cultural inclusion

Catching a Wave Rory Dicker, Alison Piepmeier, 2016-02-01 Young women today have benefited from the strides made by grassroots social activists in the 1960s and 1970s yet they are hesitant to identify themselves as feminists and seem apathetic about carrying the torch of older generations to redress persistent sexism and gender based barriers Contesting the notion that we are in a post feminist age this provocative collection of original essays identifies a third wave of feminism The contributors argue that the next generation needs to develop a politicized collective feminism that both builds on the strategies of second wave feminists and is grounded in the material realities and culture of the twenty first century Organized in five sections that mirror the stages of consciousness raising this is an engaging often edgy look at a broad range of perspectives on the diversity complexity multiplicity and playfulness of the third wave It is also a call to action for new voices to redefine a feminism that is not only personally aware but also politically involved

Feminist Studies Nina Lykke, 2010-04-05 In this book feminist scholar Nina Lykke highlights current issues in feminist theory epistemology and methodology Combining introductory overviews with cutting edge reflections Lykke focuses on analytical approaches to gendered power differentials intersecting with other processes of social inclusion based on race class and sexuality Lykke confronts and contrasts classical stances in feminist epistemology with poststructuralist and postconstructionist feminisms and also brings bodily materiality into dialogue with theories of the performativity of gender and sex This thorough and needed analysis of the state of Feminist Studies will be a welcome addition to scholars and students in Gender and Women's Studies and Sociology
