Baedeker Travel Guide To Egypt:

Baedeker's Egypt Karl Baedeker, 2011-03 Baedeker's Egypt is the 17th century traveler's quintessential guide to Egypt. Rich in detail of the sights, history, and culture of the country, even travelers today would be impressed with the advice Baedeker gives and the background he supplies. With information on hotels, public safety, cafés, geology, and climate, and ancient through modern history, in addition to chapters on specific regions, one vacationing in Egypt today might enjoy using the old-fashioned guide for advice in their travels, though probably should skip the hotel recommendations. KARL BAEDEKER 1801-1859 was a German publisher who had been born as the son of a print maker in Prussia. His publishing company, Baedeker, set the gold standard for travel and guidebooks of his time. Influenced by the style of English publisher John Murray, who had published Romantic greats like Jane Austen, Charles Darwin, Lord Byron, and Sir Arthur Conan Doyle, among others, his books became known for their accuracy and detail, which not only included price and transportation information but also starred ratings for tourist attractions.
