

jy mag maar

Jy mag maar jou koffie slurp of in die piering gooi Jy mag maar met vuil voete oor die wit mat loop Jy mag jou naels byt vals sing swak groente huistoe bring Die badkamer omkrap die nat vloer opdroog met die waslap Skakel maar die radio aan om ses in die more en luister hoe hulle brabbel oor veevrektes aartappelroes inseminasie Jy mag maar snags hard snork oor koue voete brom
-as jy net terug wil kom

Baby The Afrikaans Poem:

The Boy : And a Child Shall Lead Them Trevor Herron,2014-01-09 The Boy is a fictionalized version of how one thirteen year old child makes a difference in changing the face of apartheid in South Africa In 1976 Jonah Moloï stands up to the new law making Afrikaans the official language taught in schools This language was considered the language of the white oppressors The children's decisive action eventually brought about the end of apartheid Jonah becomes the living symbol for equality and freedom The novel follows Jonah as he leads the children through a hail of police bullets leaving behind an efficient protest system before he is forced to flee The Boy And a Child Shall Lead Them will resonate with readers who believe in justice and shows how one person can make a difference

Nelson Mandela Crain Soudien,2017-03-22 The death of Nelson Mandela the great South African fighter for freedom in December 2013 prompted several colleagues within the World Council of Comparative Education Societies community to come together to think about the significance of his life and his work for education This book is the result of that coming together The contributing authors reflect on what his life the commitments he made and principally the values he took into the struggle for freedom in South Africa mean for education The point of departure for the book is that of honouring the man It begins with the argument that the values for which he stood namely the unconditional dignity of all human beings respect for difference and principally his lifelong commitment to justice have a special significance for how we as inhabitants of an increasingly connected and interdependent world conduct our personal lives our relationships with one another and with the material and living space which surrounds us It is an ecological approach As the world moves into a twenty first century where paradoxically we know so much and yet appear to understand so little and so find ourselves struggling to create social lives in which all of us can feel respected can offer respect to others and live lives free of fear and anxiety the values for which he stood have specific relevance for how we do the important job of teaching and what we put into it Mandela poses deeply provocative questions about the kinds of lives we seek for ourselves and for everybody else around us

Literary Transactions in South Africa Michael Chapman,2025-04-03 A representative overview of some of the most pressing concerns in contemporary literary criticism in South Africa demonstrating literary form's shaping power in the interpretation of politically contentious content Rather than pressing literature into the service of a political cause or programme this study's purpose its politics of interpretation is to open literature to the potential of human experience in both the personal and the public life The society of focus South Africa is a society of political contestation Instead of prioritizing the what of contestation however Michael Chapman explores contestation through the how of the literary work In sharp transactions between an intransitivity of form and a compulsion to communicate the book elucidates an ethics of aesthetics in J M Coetzee and Nadine Gordimer and the best of modernism and the worst of modernism in Roy Campbell's poetry It also asks Can Themba's style of the shebeens in the 1950s be re visited in a contemporary context of gender based abuse Why or how are Ellen Kuzwayo and Mtutuzeli Matshoba writing in the struggle years of the 1970s simultaneously less than artists and more than artists Has the interpretative frame of the postcolonial best served fiction after apartheid What language of interpretation best releases the voices of contemporary women s poetry a poetry which in its play on identities and identifications looks both inwards to its locality and outwards to the globe Alert to both South Africa s colonial past and its assertions of today Literary Transactions in South Africa pursues the challenge of interpreting a literature of disjuncture between Africa and the West or the South and the North And Bid Him Sing February,2020-02-14 Combining both political and social concern this collection of essays talks and reviews by Dr February covers a remarkable range of subject matter knowledge and expertise surrounding South Africa And Bid Him Sing consists of a series of lectures first delivered at various institutes of higher learning in Africa Europe and the United States of America between 1971 and 1985 These essays all reflect the author s involvement with African literature and culture and deep interest in colonial processes The research links the history of the Afrikaner s freedom struggle against British imperialism and of the Africans Soweto protest of 1976 Ingrid Jonker Louise Viljoen,2013-03-15 Nelson Mandela brought the poetry of Ingrid Jonker to the attention of South Africa and the wider world when he read her poem Die kind The Child at the opening of South Africa s first democratic parliament on May 24 1994 Though Jonker was already a significant figure in South African literary circles Mandela s reference contributed to a revival of interest in Jonker and her work that continues to this day Viljoen s biography illuminates the brief and dramatic life of Jonker who created a literary oeuvre as searing in its intensity as it is brief before taking her own life at the age of thirty one Jonker wrote against a background of escalating apartheid laws violent repression of black political activists and the banning of the African National Congress and the Pan Africanist Congress Viljoen tells the story of Ingrid Jonker in the political and cultural context of her time provides sensitive insights into her poetry and considers the reasons for the enduring fascination with her life and death Her writings her association with bohemian literary circles and her identification with the oppressed brought her into conflict with her father a politician in the white ruling party and with other authority figures from her Afrikaner background Her life and work demonstrate the difficulty and importance of artistic endeavor in a place of terrible conflict The Routledge Handbook of Pronouns Laura L. Paterson,2023-12-07 This original volume provides the first state of the art overview of research on pronouns in the 21st century With its dedicated sections on grammar history and change language learning acquisition cognition and comprehension power politics and identity The Routledge Handbook of Pronouns shows that contemporary interest in pronouns and gender represents just the tip of the iceberg Led by Laura Paterson a transdisciplinary collection of experts discuss the global history of different pronoun systems synthesize the literature and contextualize the salient issues and current debates shaping research on pronouns across different spheres and via different theoretical methodological traditions The Handbook is designed to encourage readers to engage with a range of perspectives from within and beyond their immediate areas of interest with the ultimate aim of shaping the future trajectory of interdisciplinary multiingual research on pronouns Using data from multiple languages and engaging deeply with the social cultural political technological and psychological factors that can influence pronoun use this innovative book will be an indispensable resource to scholars and advanced students of theoretical and applied linguistics education and the social and behavioural sciences Refractive Realisms Megan Jones, 2025-03-27 Refractive Realisms positions the township as a lens through which to engage the South African canon endeavouring to provide a reorientation towards a black creative archive and surfacing under represented forms of literary and cultural expression The book converses with the long history of realism in black South African writing to show how the refractive realisms of the contemporary township simultaneously bear witness to precarity and articulate lively diversity It brings together narratives that take the reader through persuasive depictions of township life and its flexible identities the failures of post apartheid the possibilities that emerge from the ruins of historical injustice the practices of commodity consumption and the limits of race and gender discourses that align with non belonging to township spaces An incisive read on the literary and cultural forms of the twenty first century South African township this book will be of great interest to scholars and researchers of literary studies identity politics cultural studies ethnicity and race sociology and African Studies Shadow Sisters Shelley Davidow, 2018-03-28 A brave heartrending memoir of family love and longing in the turbulent era of Apartheid in South Africa During the terrifying years of Apartheid in South Africa Shelley Davidow's family was a crime At a time when it was illegal for black and white people to live together Shelley's social activist parents took in Rosie an abandoned black three year old Rosie grew up as a beloved daughter and sister in a white household Against the backdrop of racist laws and ever present threats of violence Shelley's parents did all they could to provide a safe happy home for their five children But when Rosie was sixteen devastating truths came to light shattering the family's understanding of the past In this haunting memoir Shelley Davidow sifts through the memories of her early life searching for hope and reconciliation Shadow Sisters leaves us with a deeper understanding of family love and of how sometimes that love is not enough South African English Poetry Michael J.
