Flat Aesthetics Christian Moraru,2022-12-15 Flat Aesthetics seeks to secure a more granular and ontologically demotic handle on the contemporary in American literature While contemporaneity can be viewed as our period Christian Moraru approaches the contemporary as some thing made by things themselves The making of the contemporary is variously restaged by the body of fictional prose under scrutiny here Thus this corpus itself participates in the making of contemporaneity In dialogue with object oriented ontology and various new materialisms Moraru contends that the contemporary does not preexist objects or the novels featuring them it is not their background but an outcome of things self presentation As objects beings or existents present themselves in the present in our now they foster thing configurations that together compose the form of and essentially make the contemporary the present s cultural material signature as Moraru calls it To decipher this signature Flat Aesthetics provides a cross sectional reading of postmillennial American fiction Discussed are solely post 2000 works by writers who have also established themselves over the past two decades or so from Nicole Krauss Michael Chabon and Ben Lerner to Colson Whitehead and Emily St John Mandel Their output Moraru claims bears witness to the onset of a flat aesthetics in American letters after September 11 2001 Organized into five parts the books canvases objectual constellations of contemporaneity shaped by material dynamics of language museality and display spatiality zombification and thing rhetoric and post anthropocentric kinship

Allies and Mates Gordon L. Steinbrook,1995-01-01 Gordon Steinbrook was a young tenderfoot army second lieutenant commissioned out of college and newly married when he received his orders for Vietnam in 1966 At that time the war was rapidly escalating the United States hoped for a quick resolution of the conflict through massive amounts of American firepower and troop strength Steinbrook was no ideologue like so many of his compatriots he saw Vietnam service as a job to be done efficiently and quickly and then home again as soon and as safely as possible What elevates Steinbrook s account into a special category was his assignment as an artillery forward observer with Australian and New Zealand allied troops In the American national debate and hand wringing over the Vietnam War an often forgotten component of the war is the service of several allied contingents Koreans Australians New Zealanders Filipinos The experience of these forces who often participated in heavy fighting has not been well reported or studied not even in the countries that provided the troops Accounts of the attitudes of these troops toward the war and toward their ostensible Vietnamese and American allies are a major contribution of Steinbrook s book The author has created the account of his experience through a skillful blend of memories and letters home the result is an engaging and unpretentious depiction of what the war was like for an ordinary young man who saw exceptional service in America s most troubling war
