Dear Mr. [Write name here]

I have agreed to work with this company because of its known strength and proper management which has been praised by so many, employees and outsiders alike.

In my years of service with this firm, I have experienced such a good work environment and have witnessed the excellent management skills which has made employees work better and harder.

However, due to the change in management, the excellent job done by the previous management staff had all amounted to nothing. This is because of the calloused and foolish ways you handle things, which is no longer serving anyone.

May I then tender my resignation effectively. I can no longer be a part of a company which has shown no proper disposition and right conduct towards its employees. I can no longer have any respect for such a management.

Thank you very much and may God Bless each and everyone of you.

Sincerely,

[Write Your Name]
