Handbook of Theory and Practice of Sustainable Development in Higher Education Walter Leal Filho, Constantina Skanavis, Arminda do Paço, Judy Rogers, Olga Kuznetsova, Paula Castro, 2016-11-23 This Handbook approaches sustainable development in higher education from an integrated perspective addressing the dearth of publications on the subject. It offers a unique overview of what universities around the world are doing to implement sustainable development i.e. via curriculum innovation, research activities or practical projects and how their efforts relate to education for sustainable development at the university level. The Handbook gathers a wealth of information, ideas, best practices and lessons learned in the context of executing concrete projects and assesses methodological approaches to integrating the topic of sustainable development in university curricula. Lastly, it documents and disseminates the veritable treasure trove of practical experience currently available on sustainability in higher education.

Higher Education and Sustainability Ulisses Manuel de Miranda Azeiteiro, J. Paulo Davim, 2019-08-30 The book provides descriptions of experiences from research and educational sustainability projects and the role HEIs can play together with contributions presenting a variety of initiatives showing how SDGs are being implemented. The book promotes the theoretical and practical understanding on this thematic and disseminates knowledge and international research and cooperation. Contributions cover the role of SDGs in advancing implementation of sustainable development, sustainability in higher education, the role of universities in sustainable development, new paths towards sustainable development and e-learning contributions. Features: Focuses on theoretical and practical understanding on Sustainability, Higher Education and SDGs to disseminate knowledge and promote research and cooperation. Includes lessons learned from sustainability research and educational challenges, presenting case studies, technological developments, outputs of research and studies, best practices and examples of successful projects. Discusses relevant and international perspectives on sustainability, higher education and SDGs. Presents local and international contributions on a variety of initiatives showing how SDGs are being implemented.

Transforming Higher Education Through Universal Design for Learning Seán Bracken, Katie Novak, 2019-02-21 Providing insight into the background theory and practical applications of Universal Design for Learning (UDL), Transforming Higher Education through Universal Design for Learning: An International Perspective examines and shares best practice in UDL implementation worldwide to provide strategies for strengthening student accessibility, engagement and learning outcomes through the development of flexible learning environments. Drawing upon insightful research-based contributions from educators and student service specialists in Australia, Belgium, Brazil, Canada, Ireland, Israel, Norway, South Africa, Spain, the UK and all across the USA, this book considers diversity in the form of disability, minority ethnic groups, gender identities, first-generation university students and varying socio-economic backgrounds. It brings together key thinkers and actors in the field of UDL and expertly maps its practices to the higher educational domain, explores the multiple means of representation, expression and engagement that combine to create a successful UDL framework Each chapter not only provides a different perspective of how UDL has helped meet the needs of all students to ensure that education is accessible culturally responsive and socially just but also considers how this can then be implemented into higher education environments the world over This book is a crucial read for those who want to make a positive difference in higher education provision and outcomes Lugalla: Rethinking Teacher Education, 2023-06-27 Rethinking Teacher Education Improvement Innovation and Change is the result of the conference organised by The Aga Khan University Institute for Educational Development East Africa AKU IED EA on education in Uganda in 2017 The Conference gathered participants from nine countries to deliberate on a cross section of factors regarding teacher education in the region and landscaping the same on global perspectives The choice of the conference theme was inspired by a need to consider new systems policies structures and reforms to help drive sustainable education for the development of nations in the East African region A variety contributors participated from across the education landscape and included researchers working in higher education practitioners such as teachers in schools tutors instructors in colleges and lecturers and professors at universities Also contributing were non governmental organisations with interests in education and student learning outcomes civil society organisations whose interests navigate the role education plays in social and national development policy makers and curriculum developers librarians publishers booksellers and teacher trainees all of who shared their rich experiences and perspectives on teacher education in the 21st century in East Africa and globally The Role of Higher Education Institutions in Climate Change Adaptation and Mitigation Ravinesh Rohit Prasad, 2025-03-08 This book provides the readers with a description of climate change and the role of the University in promoting climate change education It explores the Higher Education Institutions HEIs curriculum at various universities worldwide and how they have incorporated climate change into the university wide programs The book also looks at the causes and impacts of climate change and the countries most affected by this phenomenon particularly Fiji and Indonesia It describes how the various sectors such as health agriculture and tourism have been impacted by climate change This book also summarizes the roles of United Nations Organizations in implementing climate change education at universities The importance of climate change education is expressed in terms of adaptation and mitigation and to foster resilience adaptability and adaptation to climate change The role of university student organizations aimed at environmental protection for climate change adaptation and mitigation is also discussed in this book Strategies for Facilitating Inclusive Campuses in Higher Education Jaimie Hoffman, Patrick Blessinger, Mandla Makhanya, 2019-07-25 This volume provides educators with a global understanding of the successes and challenges associated with facilitating inclusive campuses in higher education amidst the growing diversity of students by providing evidence based strategies and ideas for implementing equity and inclusion at higher education institutions around the world Yearbook of International Organizations 2014-2015, Volumes 1a & 1b (Set) Union of International Associations, 2014-06-16 Volume 1 A and B covers international
