The SAGE Handbook of Advertising Gerard J Tellis, Tim Ambler, 2007-10-24 In this era of snackable content which satisfies only in the moment it's great to have a comprehensive Advertising Handbook which one can consult repeatedly. The references are comprehensive and the Handbook opens up many key areas for practitioners. Hamish Pringle, Director General IPA. Finally a Handbook of Advertising that brings the field up to date. I am impressed with its comprehensive coverage of topics and the distinguished specialists who have shared their key findings with us. Philip Kotler, Kellogg School of Management. When trying to make sense of the mystifying world of advertising, academics and practitioners often seem to inhabit separate universes. Not in this Handbook. For once the best brains from each side genuinely collude with constructive results. Wise agencies will read it before their clients do. Sir Martin Sorrell, CEO WPP. This mighty tome brings together a vast range of views of advertising based on deep experience and scholarship. For practitioners and academics alike it will be a voyage of discovery and enlightenment. Lord Maurice Saatchi, Chairman M C Saatchi. This magnificent volume captures all we need to know about how advertising works and its context. Baroness Peta Buscombe, Director General Advertising Association. London Advertising is a field that has attracted a great deal of academic attention but to date there has been no summarising of the state of the art of research. This far reaching and scholarly Handbook is edited by two highly respected and trusted thinkers in the field and includes contributions from leading academics based in both the UK and the USA. Tim Ambler and Gerald J Tellis archive their aim of setting advertising and the theory that underpins it in its historical and societal context, showcasing the most significant advertising research questions of our time and pointing readers in the direction of future avenues for fruitful investigation. The SAGE Handbook of Advertising would be a welcome addition to any marketing academics bookshelf.

In March 2010 the President signed an Executive Order creating the National Export Initiative (NEI) with a goal of doubling U S exports in 5 years. However, since 2004 the workforce of the U S and Foreign Commercial Service (CS) has shrunk, calling into question the ability of this key agency to increase its activities to assist U S businesses with their exports. This report reviewed 1 how well CS managed its resources from 2004 to 2009 and 2 the completeness of CS's workforce plans and the quality of its fiscal year 2011 budget request. Tables.
