This newly translated volume of the Collected Works of Marie-Louise von Franz, one of the most renowned authorities on fairytales, presents a systematic and wide-ranging approach. Von Franz amplifies a variety of fairytale motifs to show that the magical realm is alien to the profane and mundane realm of ordinary daily life. She was one of Analytical Psychology's most original thinkers and here she presents a lucid, concise exploration of the archetypal symbols found in fairytales. Fairytales like myths provide a cultural and societal backdrop that helps the human imagination narrate the meaning of life's events. The remarkable similarities in fairytale motifs across different lands and cultures inspired many scholars to search for the original homeland of fairytales. While peregrinations of fairytale motifs occur, the common root of fairytales is more archetypal than geographic. A striking feature of fairytales is that a sense of space, time, and causality is absent. This situates them in a magical realm, a land of the soul where the most interesting things happen in the center of places like Heaven, mountains, lakes, and wells. At the age of eighteen, Marie-Louise von Franz was invited to meet Carl Gustav Jung at Bollingen Tower. She immediately recognized that there exist two levels of reality: one outer and the other inner. Within months, she had enrolled at the University of Zurich and began attending Jung's lectures at the Eidgenössische Technische Hochschule or the Swiss Federal Institute of Technology. Less than a decade after meeting Jung, von Franz had completed her doctorate in classical philology and begun seeing her first analysands. She was a prolific writer, a dedicated teacher and lecturer, and was possessed of a far-reaching and often non-discriminating Eros that accepted everyone seeking help. Alfred Ribi, MD, in Fountain of the Love of Wisdom, Chiron, 2006. [A Translation of the Confucian \[I Ching\] ; Or, the Classic of Change](#), 1973.

The Holy Spirit and Ch'i (Qi) Koo Dong Yun, 2012-03-02. This book articulates a contextual pneumatology from a perspective of the Eastern idea of ch'i ki in Korean. Rather than understanding the Spirit from a Westernized philosophical perspective, this book utilizes East Asian categories rooted in the I Ching and Asian religions in dialogue with such prominent Western theologians as Barth, Pannenberg, Moltmann, and Harvey Cox. The result is an exciting interaction between the Bible traditions of the West and experiences of the Spirit rooted in East Asia. Yun argues that the formal dimension of the Spirit, sangjeok, is present and active in all cultures and religions, while the material dimension of the Spirit, muljeok, is categorically revealed and embodied through the life of Jesus Christ, the event of Pentecost, and Charisms given to the church. In making his case, he mediates a creative balance between countercultural and exclusivist models on the one hand and pluralistic and anthropocentric models on the other.
