Jamaican National Bibliography, 1984 The Road to Sustained Growth in Jamaica World Bank, 2004 Despite having a number of potential attributes such as being English speaking having poverty levels below that of comparable countries and a reasonably well educated labour force Jamaicas economic history is marked by the paradoxes of low growth in GDP and high employment despite high investment and important achievements in poverty reduction This publication seeks to examines these issues and topics discussed include poverty reduction and income inequality whether Jamaicas GDP growth has been underestimated policy options for reducing the fiscal and debt burden revitalising the financial system improving education outcomes tackling the economic costs of crime and improving international competitiveness The CARICOM Bibliography, 1983 Ancient and Indigenous Wisdom Traditions in the Americas Ehaab Abdou, Theodore Zervas, 2024-08-01 This book brings attention to the understudied and often overlooked question of how curricula and classroom practices might inadvertently reproduce exclusionary discourses and narratives that omit or negate particular cultures histories and wisdom traditions With a focus on representations and classroom practices related especially to ancient and Indigenous wisdom traditions and cultures it includes unique contributions from scholars studying these questions in various contexts The book offers a range of important studies from various contexts across the Americas including Canada the various member nations of the Caribbean Community CARICOM Puerto Rico and the United States The various chapter contributions address and discuss nuances of each of the contexts under study The contributions also help highlight some key commonalities across these contexts including how dominant discourses and various forces have historically shaped and continue to shape and reproduce such omissions misrepresentations and marginalization In addition to seeking to reconcile with some of these ancient and Indigenous wisdom traditions and cultures the book charts a path forward toward more holistic analytical frameworks as well as more inclusive and balanced representations and classroom practices in these aforementioned geographic contexts and beyond It will appeal to scholars researchers undergraduate and graduate students with interests in Indigenous education curriculum studies citizenship education history of education religion and educational policy School and Work in the Eastern Caribbean Andreas Blom, Cynthia Hobbs, 2008-01-01 This book reviews current education and skills training options in the Eastern Caribbean and asks whether the prevailing education policies adequately prepare youth for the global economy It provides in depth analysis and relevant international cutting edge practices to guide policymakers educators and private sector leaders in fostering a creative productive and well paid workforce Specifically it makes the case for why the OECS education and training systems need to be more responsive to changing labor market demands in the region and discusses how this could be achieved taking into c Jamaican Books in Print, May 1993, 1993 CXC News, 1986 Pan-Africanism, and the Politics of African Citizenship and Identity Toyin Falola, Kwame Essien, 2013-10-08 There is no recent literature that underscores the transition from Pan Africanism to

Diaspora discourse This book examines the gradual shift and four major transformations in the study of Pan Africanism It offers an academic post mortem that seeks to gauge the extent to which Pan Africanism overlaps with the study of the African Diaspora and reverse migrations how Diaspora studies has penetrated various disciplines while Pan Africanism is located on the periphery of the field The book argues that the gradual shift from Pan African discourses has created a new pathway for engaging Pan African ideology from academic and social perspectives Also the book raises questions about the recent political waves that have swept across North Africa and their implications to the study of twenty first century Pan African solidarity on the African continent The ways in which African institutions are attracting and mobilizing returnees and Pan Africanists with incentives as dual citizenship for diasporans to support reforms in Africa offers a new alternative approach for exploring Pan African ideology in the twenty first century Returnees are also using these incentives to gain economic and cultural advantage The book will appeal to policy makers government institutions research libraries undergraduate and graduate students and scholars from many different disciplines

Inside Jamaican Schools Hyacinth L. Evans, 2001 Students and teachers of education in the Caribbean have long relied on ethnographic research from North America to enrich their understanding of life in schools and classrooms Based on actual experiences from the perspectives of both students and teachers this collection of ethnographic research articles provides the first up close view of Jamaican schools and classrooms Hyacinth Evans and her research team used careful well executed interviews and participant observation methods The result is an insightful view of the ways society's tensions are played out in educational settings the ways personalities are shaped and identities formed in face to face interactions and the ways circumstances and experiences in the Jamaican setting affect teaching and learning The articles examine Student teacher interaction Teacher authority how it is maintained nurtured or eroded The social construction of student interest and attention versus disruptiveness and apathy Consequences of streaming children in perceived ability groups Standard Jamaican English SJE methods and their effectiveness in teaching Creole speaking students

Gendered Realities Patricia Mohammed, 2002 This reader presents an understanding of Caribbean feminist scholarship The essays deal with diverse topics including the role of women in Caribbean art the development of women's history and gendered history the representation of masculinity in Caribbean feminist thought and more
