Transnational Black Feminism and Qualitative Research Tanja J. Burkhard, 2021-11-16 Transnational Black Feminism and Qualitative Research invites readers to consider what it means to conduct research within their own communities by interrogating local and global contexts of colonialism race and migration The qualitative data at the centre of this book stem from a yearlong qualitative study of the lived experiences of Black women who migrated to or spent a significant amount of time in the United States as well as from the author's experiences as a Black German woman and former international student It proposes Transnational Black Feminism as a framework in qualitative inquiry Methodological considerations emerging from and complementary to this framework critically explore qualitative concepts such as reciprocity care and the ethics with which research is conducted to account for shifts in power dynamics in the research process and to radically work against the dehumanization of participants their communities and researchers This short and accessible book is ideal for qualitative researchers graduate students and feminist scholars interested in the various dimensions of racialization coloniality language and migration German books in print ,2002 Deutscher Literatur-Katalog Koch, Neff & Oetinger & Co.; Koehler & Volckmar, 1978
