Scripturalizing the Human is a transdisciplinary collection of essays that reconceptualizes and models scriptural studies as a critical comparative set of practices with broad ramifications for scholars of religion and biblical studies This critical historical and ethnographic project is focused on scriptures scripturalization scripturalizing as shorthand for the psycho cultural and socio political work we make language do for and to us Each essay focuses on an instance of or situation involving such work engaging with the Bible Book of Mormon Bhagavata Purana and other sacred texts artifacts and practices in order to explore historical and ongoing constructions of the human Contributors use the category of scriptures understood not simply as texts but as freighted shorthand for the dynamics and ultimate politics of language as tools for self illumination and self analysis The significance of the collection lies in the window it opens to the rich and complex view of the highs and lows of human un making as it establishes the connections between a seemingly basic and apolitical religious category and a set of larger social cultural phenomena and dynamics By the Gift and Power of God Leo heavy presumption of Protestant dominance With subjects ranging from the War of Independence to the early 21st century the contributions to this volume focus on a variety of historical and chronological circumstances in order to consider what concrete tangible outcomes what artifacts were produced by the interface of war peace and religion the swords and ploughshares of the title This volume thus presents a variety of often multifaceted responses that reflect its interdisciplinary scope Some contributions refer to fine art pieces including statues paintings and murals and others to works of literature theology or public speaking Some of these interfaces were performed on stage or in film while yet others were heard on the radio or read in newspapers or journals Some of the essays gathered here concern individuals working through the meaning of armed conflict in terms of their own personal faith while others examine the impact of such conflicts on a larger scale as with whole faith communities or in the shaping of national or foreign policy The first part Communities looks at interfaces that served to structure a whole community The second Margins examines instances where the relationship between religion and war and peace has occupied a more marginal space within a faith community The final section turns this interface Outward situating it away from American soil or noting how foreign war shaped the spirituality of those returning Books and Pamphlets, Including Serials and Contributions to Periodicals Library of Congress.
