Cyprian The Bishop Routledge Early Church Monographs:

Cyprian the Bishop J. Patout Burns Jr.,2002-09-11 This is the first up to date accessible study on the rule of Cyprian as the Bishop of Carthage in the 250s AD It controversially shows that Cyprian radically enforced the primary emphasis on the unity of the church interpreting loyalty in the community as fidelity to Christ It uses cultural anthropology to examine the impact of Cyprian s policy during the Decian persecution Cyprian attempted to steer the middle ground between compromise and traditionalism and succeeded by defining the boundary between the empire and the church J Patout Burns Jr concentrates on social structures to reveal the logic of Cyprian s plan the basis for its success in his time and why it later failed This book will be of great interest to classicists ancient historians and sociologists as well as theologians

Documents of the Rise of Christianity Kevin W. Kaatz,2019-03-14 An introduction to the history of early Christianity this reference provides roughly 60 primary source documents from the first five centuries of the Christian Era each accompanied by explanatory material Christianity has been one of the most powerful influences on world history and for this reason the world of the early Christians figures prominently in film fiction and popular culture The first centuries of Christianity provided the foundation for the faith institutions of today this book examines the history of early Christianity through its use of primary texts written by early Christians In doing so it helps readers to understand that multiple sects of Christianity competed for dominance and it sheds light on the struggles of early Christians that their differences entailed The book covers the first five centuries of the Christian Era with sections devoted to each century Some 60 primary source documents appear within those sections and each is accompanied by background information This chronological arrangement helps readers to understand how Christianity evolved over time and it provides insights into the theological debates and persecutions that marked the lives of early Christians and characterized the early Church

Caesar and the Lamb, Second Edition George Kalantzis,2025-05-30 Through the available patristic writings Caesar and the Lamb focuses on the attitudes of the earliest Christians on war and military service Kalantzis provides the reader with many new translations of pre Constantinian texts and tells the story of the struggle of the earliest church to bear witness to the nations that enveloped them as they transformed the dominant narratives of citizenship loyalty freedom power and control Kalantzis examines writings on war and military service in the first three centuries of the Christian church in an organized manner but the ways the communities of Christ at the margins of power and society thought of themselves and the state are not presented here through the lens of antiquarian curiosity At the heart of Caesar and the Lamb is a desire to understand the world in which Christianity arose and to ask questions of the past that may help us understand the early character of the Christian faith with the hope that such an enterprise will also help us evaluate its expression in our own time

Early Christian Epistolarity ,2025-11-20 Many surviving early Christian writings are in the form of letters some sent by and to those named others imagined What did the authors copyists and later collectors intend by authoring or reworking letters as opposed to other genres How did the first or subsequent readers respond differently perhaps than to a novel or history In her Radboud Prestige Lectures in New Testament published in this volume Judith Lieu explores these questions by drawing on the concept of epistolarity Her lectures are followed by chapters by leading experts in the field who engage her work from different angles finding points of contact and potential conversation between different texts and authors together with possibilities for further exploration and application Papers Presented at the Fourteenth International Conference on Patristic Studies Held in Oxford 2003 Frances Margaret Young, Mark J. Edwards, Paul M. Parvis, 2006 Studia Patristica F. Young, Paul M. Parvis, 2006 Papers presented at the Fourteenth International Conference on Patristic Studies held in Oxford 2003 see also Studia Patristica 39 40 41 and 43 The successive sets of Studia Patristica contain papers delivered at the International Conferences on Patristic Studies which meet for a week once every four years in Oxford they are held under the aegis of the Theology Faculty of the University Members of these conferences come from all over the world and most offer papers These range over the whole field both East and West from the second century to a section on the Nachleben of the Fathers The majority are short papers dealing with some small and manageable point they raise and sometimes resolve questions about the authenticity of documents dates of events and such like and some unveil new texts The smaller number of longer papers put such matters into context and indicate wider trends The whole reflects the state of Patristic scholarship and demonstrates the vigour and popularity of the subject Ritual Sites and Religious Rivalries in Late Roman North Africa Shira L. Lander, 2016-10-24 Lander provides a new understanding of ancient notions of ritual space by analyzing literary along with archaeological evidence Christianity in Ancient Rome Bernard Green, 2010-04-15 of the Pope Book Jacket Loving the Poor, Saving the Rich Helen Rhee, 2012-11-01 The issue of wealth and poverty and its relationship to Christian faith is as ancient as the New Testament and reaches even further back to the Hebrew Scriptures From the beginnings of the Christian movement the issue of how to deal with riches and care for the poor formed an important aspect of Christian discipleship This careful study shows how early Christians adopted appropriated and transformed the Jewish and Greco Roman moral teachings and practices of giving and patronage As Helen Rhee illuminates the early Christian understanding of wealth and poverty she shows how it impacted the formation of Christian identity She also demonstrates the ongoing relevance of early Christian thought and practice for the contemporary church Journal of Early Christian Studies, 2003 Focus is on the study of Christianity in the context of late ancient societies and religions from C E 100 700 Cyprian of Carthage Henk Bakker, Paul van Geest, Hans van Loon, 2010 Up to Augustine bishop Cyprian of Carthage was the theological authority in the West and he has continued to influence theology ever since Cyprian of Carthage Studies in His Life Language and Thought is the result of a symposium on this Church Father held by the Centre for Patristic Research CPO which is an initiative of VU University Amsterdam and Tilburg University The symposium was held on the occasion of the 1750th anniversary of his martyrdom which took place on 14 September 258 Virtually all contributions are from Dutch
