The decision about how and where to send your story into the world isn't easy, mostly because it isn't simple. When you're first getting started, navigating the path to publishing can be overwhelming at best. At worst, it can drive you to drink. Many authors make mistakes simply because they JUST DON'T KNOW what to do. I know because that was me once. Sometimes those mistakes are costly in terms of money wasted on the wrong cover or editor. But that doesn't have to be you. I've spent the last few years self-publishing bestselling fiction as a full-time author while coaching and teaching other authors to do the same. I've self-published more than thirty books and found a publisher for another four, and now everything I've learned along the way is yours.
