Dos Mundos Richard Baker, 1995-02 Written in 1995 this unique ethnographic study of a small Idaho community with a large Hispanic population examines many dimensions of the impact race relations have on everyday life for rural Mexican Americans Mexican Americans are the largest minority in Idaho yet they live in a different world from the Anglo population and because of pervasive stereotypes and exclusive policies their participation in the community's social economic and political life is continually impeded The small town setting of this study allows the reader to listen to how Anglos talk about a racial minority Most Americans publicly censor and monitor their thoughts on racial minorities but Anglos in Midwest expressed openly what many Anglo Americans think This study presents a comprehensive examination of how institutionalized racism operates in American society Reading this book will enable the reader to better understand why the race problem in America does not disappear
