Down On Main Street Searching For American Exceptionalism:

Down on Main Street Ed Mattson, 2014-10-28 Since the Presidential election of 2008 there has been a trend of liberal progressive Americans to distance themselves from everything that has made America the most successful experiment in government the world has ever known and in fact to even question what conservative Americans call the American Exceptionalism. From President Obama himself who spent the early months of his presidency touring the globe apologizing for nearly 3 centuries of America being the beacon of freedom liberty and free market capitalism that has enabled the United States to lead the world in economic development never before seen in history. Over the last five and a half years President Obama's promise to fundamentally change America has delivered an average loss of 5000 in family wealth and the highest misery index since the presidency of Jimmy Carter. It has also brought with it the largest number of Americans who are unable to find meaningful employment since the Great Depression the highest number of Americans seeking government assistance an astonishing federal debt of 18 trillion on the way to 26 trillion by 2022 a bloated and out of control federal bureaucracy scandals in nearly every department of government and a world on the brink of chaos caused by tyranny and terrorism. Down on Main Street Searching for American Exceptionalism documents the events and people who made America the exceptional country that it has been and questions why liberal progressives most of whom live lifestyles far better than most people of the world benefit financially beyond their skill sets and have access to food luxury that is the envy of other countries would want to tear down the very free market capitalistic system that has proven to be the only system that has ever lifted whole nations out of poverty in favor of economic ideologies that have never been proven to work insure only equal misery and mediocrity for its citizens and can only be held together at the point of a gun. The End of American Exceptionalism David M. Wrobel, 1993 A lucid and rewarding synthesis of cultural and western history. Richard W. Etulain author of Writing Western History Wrobel makes a fine contribution to the study of myth by analyzing the anxiety or angst Americans felt about the frontier in the half century after 1890. This is an excellent book on a big subject executed with much skill. Western Historical Quarterly Direct admirably brief and crisply written. Journal of American History This Is a Picture and Not the World Joseph Natoli, 2012-02-01 In This Is a Picture and Not the World Joseph Natoli employs the lingua franca of film itself screenplay dialogue as well as the more recent form of the political blog to present a hyperreal account of popular film as both a creator and a reflector of our post 9/11 mass psyche. Drawing on both classic and contemporary film examples the book also offers a quasihistory of film genres including science fiction the western film noir and screwball comedy emphasizing how these genres have been shaken up recontextualized recombined turned self reflexive and parodied over the past couple of decades. Taken together these satirical parodies of screenplays and blogs reveal and perform how our very gaze has shifted from modern to postmodern from a direct view of the world to a filtered one. The Cambridge Companion to Modern American Culture C. A Body of Individuals Sue-Im Lee,2009 Why are some versions of the collective we admired and desired while other versions are scorned and feared A Body of Individuals The Paradox of Community in Contemporary Fiction examines the conflict over the collective we through discourses of community In the discourse of benevolent community community is a tool towards achieving healing productiveness and connection In the discourse of dissenting community community that serves a function is simply another name for totalitarianism instead community must merely be a fact of coexistence What are the sources and the appeal of these irreconcilable views of community and how do they interact in contemporary fiction s attempt at imagining we By engaging contemporary U S writers such as Toni Morrison Richard Powers Karen Tei Yamashita Lydia Davis Lynne Tillman and David Markson with theorists such as Jean Luc Nancy Giorgio Agamben Fran ois Lyotard Ernesto Laclau Louis Althusser Roland Barthes and Ludwig Wittgenstein this book reveals how the two conflicting discourses of community benevolent and dissenting are inextricably intertwined in various literary visions of we we of the family of the world of the human and of coexistence These literary visions demonstrate in a way that popular visions of community and postmodern theories of community cannot the dialectical relationship between the discourses of benevolent community and dissenting community Sue Im Lee argues that contemporary fiction s inability to resolve the paradox results in a model of ambivalent community one that offers unique insights into community and into the very notion of unity National Review
