Relief and Rehabilitation for a Post-war World Samantha K. Knapton,Katherine Rossy,2023-11-16 One of the world s first truly international humanitarian organisations the United Nations Relief and Rehabilitation Administration UNRRA was championed as a beacon of postwar philanthropy that sought to rehabilitate as well as provide relief This edited volume offers the first comprehensive study of the UNRRA and seeks to identify the key successes limitations and enduring challenges it faced in the postwar period Tracing the rehabilitation of displaced children in the camps of Germany and Austria to mountainous Greek villages without access to food or medical supplies and refugees in postwar China it will assess the immediate impact of UNRRA rehabilitation policy on postwar reconstruction international development and broader humanitarian processes Through these international case studies it will explore the ways in which a fundamental inability to define rehabilitation made it seemingly impossible to meet its objectives As a predecessor to modern specialised agencies such as UNESCO WHO and UNICEF studying the UNRRA is crucial for our understanding of the history of the United Nations the circumstances that shaped its future policies and the foundations of modern humanitarianism

Refugees in Europe, 1919-1959 Matthew Frank,Jessica Reinisch,2017-09-21 This book is open access and available on www.bloomsburycollections.com It is funded by Knowledge Unlatched Refugees in Europe 1919 1959 offers a new history of Europe's mid 20th century as seen through its recurrent refugee crises. By bringing together in one volume recent research on a range of different contexts of groups of refugees and refugee policy it sheds light on the common assumptions that underpinned the history of refugees throughout the period under review. The essays foreground the period between the end of the First World War which inaugurated a series of new international structures to deal with displaced populations and the late 1950s when Europe's home grown refugee problems had supposedly been solved and attention shifted from the identification of an exclusively European refugee problem to a global one. Borrowing from E. H. Carr's The Twenty Years Crisis first published in 1939 the editors of this volume test the idea that the two post war eras could be represented as a single crisis of a European dominated international order of nation states in the face of successive refugee crises which were both the direct consequence of that system and a challenge to it. Each of the chapters reflects on the utility and limitations of this notion of a forty years crisis for understanding the development of specific national and international responses to refugees in the mid 20th century. Contributors to the volume also provide alternative readings of the history of an international refugee regime in which the non European and colonial world are assigned a central role in the narrative.

Sexuality and German Fascism Dagmar Herzog, 2005. The interrelationship of fascism and sexuality has attracted a great deal of interest for some time now. This collection offers fresh perspectives by leading scholars on the history of sexuality under national socialism on such topics as the persecution of Jewish and gay men in the race defilement trials, homophobic propaganda and the prosecution of same sex activity within the Wehrmacht and SS, representations of female sexuality in film, prostitution on home and battle fronts, sexual relations between Germans and foreign forced laborers and reproductive practices among Jewish survivors. Moreover the authors provide new insights into the relationships between Nazi sexual politics and antisemitism and challenge assumptions of Nazism as sexually repressive. Instead they emphasize the interrelationships between incitement to sexual activity and persecution and mass murder. book jacket
