

GENERAL NOTES TO MARKERS

1. As a marker make short comments why a point was marked up or down if the memorandum does not give a clear guideline and the marker has to use own discretion.
2. Tick clearly to indicate the learning point achieved. Markers should engage actively with the answer.
3. Chief markers to facilitate the criteria and level descriptors of rubrics with markers.
4. During the marking process, have regular rounds of consultation to ensure marking is standardised.
5. In the case where a candidate writes more than the suggested number of words – do not penalise (e.g. essay question).
6. The memo discussion forum before marking commences, cannot sufficiently predict all responses. Provincial markers need to take this into account, be open to candidates' responses and make sure that different teaching styles do not disadvantage the learner.
7. Spend the first day to unpack the quality and quantity of the evidence in the memorandum and standardise required responses and find common definitions and concepts.
8. Mark globally where possible. Allow for interpretations that are well motivated from the play text. Credit insightful ideas and concepts.
9. Check that candidates' responses align with the Curriculum Assessment Policy Statement's Broad Topics and Topics.
10. Definition of 'holistic marking': This means that the point of departure for the marker should be to include and be responsive (open) to answers that may not be in the memo. These answers may be an alternative, creative and also as correct as the conventional answer. In addition, it is not the number of facts or the length of the answer but the quality and depth of the content in the answer. This could include explanations, quotations and examples.
