Inside the Mixed Marriage Walton R. Johnson,Dennis M. Warren,1994 Inside the Mixed Marriage is about the personal experiences of people in mixed marriages Here the marital partners consider the changing sets of advantages and constraints mixed marriages have imposed on them and their children And in addition to discussing the impact of society on their marriages they speculate on the impact their marriages have had on the attitudes of others It is the view from inside the mixed marriage which makes these personal narratives significant They provide sharp contrasts to those who understand mixed marriages solely in the context of intergroup relations social control and social dominance They hit directly at popular myths and fears These narratives illustrate the artificiality of social constructs like ethnicity race and culture Ebony
