Heritage Under Pressure - Threats and Solution Michael Dawson, Edward James, Mike Nevell, 2019-09-20 Heritage under Pressure examines the relationship between the political perspective of the UK government on soft power and the globalising effect of projects carried out by archaeologists and heritage professionals working in the historic environment It exemplifies the nature of professional engagement and the role of the profession in working towards a theory of practice based on the integrity of data the recovery and communication of information and the application of data in real world situations Individual papers raise complex and challenging issues such as commemoration identity and political intervention A further aim of the volume is to illustrate the role of professionals adhering to standards forged in the UK in the context of world heritage under pressure Papers also contribute to the emerging agenda developing as a result of the re orientation of the UK following the Brexit vote at once emphasising the global aspiration of the UK's professional archaeological body the Chartered Institute for Archaeologists in relation to the global reach of UK academic practice By implication the volume also addresses the relationship between professional practice and academic endeavour The volume as a whole contributes to the emerging debate on the authorised heritage discourse and provides an agenda for the future of the profession

Hittite Landscape and Geography Mark Weeden, Lee Z. Ullmann, 2022-05-20 In Hittite Landscape and Geography Mark Weeden and Lee Ullmann have gathered 28 specialist authors to present an up to date account of research on the Geography of Late Bronze Age Anatolia second half of the second millennium BC using information both from cuneiform texts and from archaeological excavation and survey The study of texts and archaeology require different specialisms This is the first time an attempt has been made to present a coordinated monograph length view of Hittite geography since 1959 and the first time that any work has tried to balance archaeological and textual data for the same geographical areas The result is a foundational research tool which will put scholarship on Hittite Geography on a firm footing for the future
