Engineering Your Academic Career John L. Junkins, 2011-12-02 John L. Junkins PhD Distinguished Professor and Member of the NAE has written this professional advice book for young and mid career engineering professors. This book provides no nonsense mentoring that will help professors achieve success and happiness while performing well the expected volume of teaching research scholarship and winning grants. Dr. Junkins has performed these functions well for four decades, directed the research of over 50 PhD students, published 7 books, several patents, and 400 other publications. He has served as Principal Investigator for 40M of research. Over 20 of his offspring are successful professors. Known as an excellent mentor, his advice is derived from first hand experience and surveys of colleagues. He conveys many practical insights that will help you achieve a productive professional career and a happy personal life. Statistical data provided on successful associate and full professor promotions will help set goals and calibrate your performance.

Pedagogy into Practice Frances R. Spielhagen, Nicole Speranzo, 2020-01-01 The purpose of this book is to help new teachers transition from students in education courses to proactive educators who can translate what they have learned in methods classes into realistic practices as novice teachers. This book will help these candidates operationalize good educational pedagogy and understand the connections between theory and practice. This book will also explain the logical connections between standard curriculum theory and certification examinations like the edTPA. Pedagogy into Practice is also answering the current cry of how to teach in a virtual setting during this Pandemic by offering up to date information on virtual learning. PRAISE FOR PEDAGOGY INTO PRACTICE: An expert in teacher education and a novice teacher brilliantly combine forces to help teachers improve their first years in service. This text is skillfully crafted and thoughtfully laid out in a way that will provide you a roadmap to navigate the common issues and concerns all new teachers face. From understanding curriculum design to aligning assessments to planning, this valuable resource will be your go to guide. Also a powerful text for teacher training, you will want to make sure this text is close at hand. Richard M. Cash, Educator and Consultant, Author of Advancing Differentiation Thinking and Learning for the 21st Century. This is an excellent resource that will be extremely valuable to the busy classroom teacher. Margaret Sutherland, Senior Lecturer and Director Post Graduate Research in the School of Education, University of Glasgow, Scotland. Long overdue and so needed. Pedagogy into Practice: A Handbook for New Teachers is an educational guide through the lenses of a master and novice educator. The authors converge their individual perspectives to provide a practical and insightful guide for teachers in all aspects of the teaching profession. Experienced and new teachers to the profession will refer to this handbook time and time again. Dana McDonough, 2016 New York State Teacher of the Year.
