Caribbean History Cxc Paper 23:

The Palgrave Handbook of Conflict and History Education in the Post-Cold War Era Luigi Cajani, Simone Lässig, Maria Repoussi, 2019-06-28 This Handbook provides a systematic and analytical approach to the various dimensions of international ethnic and domestic conflict over the uses of national history in education since the end of the Cold War With an upsurge in political social and cultural upheaval particularly since the fall of state socialism in Europe the importance of history textbooks and curricula as tools for influencing the outlooks of entire generations is thrown into sharp relief Using case studies from 58 countries this book explores how history education has had the potential to shape political allegiances and collective identities The contributors highlight the key issues over which conflict has emerged including the legacies of socialism and communism war dictatorships and genocide issues which frequently point to tensions between adhering to and challenging the idea of a cohesive national identity and historical narrative Global in scope the Handbook will appeal to a diverse academic audience including historians political scientists educationists psychologists sociologists and scholars working in the field of cultural and media studies Cxc Past Papers 00-02 Macmillan Publishers Limited, Pan Macmillan, 2004-11 British Bulletin of Publications on Latin America, the Caribbean, Portugal and Spain, 1980 The Caribbean in a Changing World Stephanie Fullerton-Cooper, Erica Gordon, Livingston Smith, 2017-06-23 This collection is a critical reflection of the evolution of Caribbean countries since the demise of the West Indies Federation in 1962 At this historical juncture some territories opted for independence while others remained dependent territories The volume examines Caribbean societies in comparative and general ways covering aspects of their ongoing development and challenges It covers such areas as Caribbean integration the state of human capital and social policy in the region the education sector Caribbean economic sustainability and significantly the physical environment of the Caribbean A central question has always been should these territories have gone independent or stayed under some British tutelage The book addresses this question illustrating that these island states have made considerable progress especially in the maintenance and deepening of democratic practices Trajectories of Freedom Alan Gregor Copley, Victor C. Simpson, 2013 Selected papers presented at a conference held May 2007 hosted by the Faculty of Humanities and Education of the University of the West Indies Cave Hill White Paper on Education Reform for Barbados, 1995 G.K. Hall Interdisciplinary Bibliographic Guide to Black Studies Schomburg Center for Research in Black Culture, 1999 Caribbean Portraits Christine Barrow, 1998 Since the 1970s the study of gender issues as they relate to the Caribbean has gone through several reinterpretations The respectable wife and mother stereotype was replaced by that of the powerful matriarch which was in turn challenged by studies exposing the poverty and vulnerability of women not only of Afro Caribbean descent but Indian white and coloured middle class women These reinterpretations signal a departure from the European American and African feminist scholarship indeed Caribbean feminists are beginning to accept that perhaps the Caribbean woman does not exist

Caribbean Portraits makes its contribution by focusing on issues of gender ideology and identity The articles in the collection ask simple but fundamental questions Who are Caribbean women and who are Caribbean men How do gender ideologies and stereotypes define them and how in turn do they respond How are gender identities and relations formed and how do imperialism capitalism racism race and culture affect these identities and relationships Jamaican National Bibliography
